A Publication By Seventh-day Adventists For Seventh-day Adventists

fallen race, the whole animal creation will groan under the diseases that curse our earth." Counsels on Diet and Foods, page 356. Brothers and sisters, as many present truth preachers preach, Sunday law is not too far away; in fact, it could come in this year or next. Even if it is 2019 or 2020 or a little later, the point is, we are so close to the end and if we think the time is not yet here to give these things up, just when do you think such will be? Therefore, we would appreciate Vegan recipes as much as possible.

Question and Answers - Of course we want to interact with everyone. And even if you have both a question and the answer that you would like to share with others, please send those as well.

News - Without such, we would just be another publication of articles. However, we will not be a news outlet. So only Bible related, present truth events will be mentioned and commented upon.

Other topics may be added to the newsletter, but what you will not see is fun and games. Such is over. It is time to be serious and participate in spreading the gospel. In the spirit of seriousness, this publication may appear very plain and there is a reason. Serious Adventists ought to be more interested in the contents as opposed to the appearance. Christ was rejected for His common appearance. May it not be so with you. In responsibly using God's funds, this publication will be produced in as simple a manner as possible, just as we are told our churches ought to have been constructed.

So may God's word go forth as He promised. "So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper [in the thing] whereto I sent it." Isaiah 55:11.

We wish we could make this publication free for everyone, but financially we are not able to do so. Therefore, we ask for a minimum subscription of $24 annually and would appreciate any donations that you would consider. Future publications are planned for 32-page content on a monthly basis.

Thank you and may God bless you.

- Author of What Does It Mean For the World To Have One Mind?
- An active Bible Worker
- Amazing Facts trained lay evangelist

Dear Reader,

Most of you do not know who I am, and although it is not so important that you do, but instead know Christ, let me introduce myself and this publication.

I am an Amazing Facts trained lay evangelist, who has been a lay pastor, church planter, a recent book author, and currently a Bible worker. I am a standard-bearer, watchman, and most definitely a Seventh-day Adventist Christian who weeps between the porch and the altar regarding not only the apostasy that has been in our church but the number of people being swept away by it. If there is anything else to add, it shall be revealed through the contents of this written material, but I am wanting to give God all the glory since this is His publication.

How is this God's publication? Do not apostate publications also claim the same thing? After successfully publishing a newsletter years ago, up through June, 2010, I sensed that God wanted me to be still for a bit, and so I was. Then on December 23, 2016, God impressed me late at night, "It's time to start up a new newsletter ministry." Of course I agreed but went to sleep asking, "Who do I mail this to?" The next morning, in an e-mail, I received a mailing list. Not even eight hours later and God provided. I checked on the existence of the impressed purpose, The Four Angels' Messages. Both the Internet domain name as well as business name were available, so I secured both, keeping in mind that this ministry is not a registered 501(c)3 as we do not care to be gagged, threatened with loss of tax exempt status, etc. We "shall call sin by its right name". We shall stand "true to duty as the needle to the pole". We plan on standing "for the right though the heavens fall". Education, page 57.

I then shared my experience with other prominent present truth presenters and each of them is on board. Praise the Lord! In fact, I am open to receiving articles, although we cannot guarantee to publish all of them. It could be tabled for later, too long, too short, or the contents may not be what we are looking for.

Articles may be about 700 words to about 3000 words, but no one is to call the church Babylon, as Sister White stated, "But we have never had a message that the Lord would disorganize the church. We have never had the prophecy concerning Babylon applied to the Seventh-day Adventist Church, or been informed that the "loud cry" consisted in calling God's people to come out of her; for this is not God's plan concerning Israel." Review & Herald, October 3, 1883 par. 12. Stating the apostasy is absolutely accurate, however, this is not an attack newsletter either. It is one thing to state it and learn, and it is another to simply call out the apostasy just to throw stones.

Areas of interest to be contained in this newsletter (subject to change) are:

Spiritual Articles - These ought to contain Bible and Spirit of Prophecy content and not so much opinion. Quoting worldly intellectuals will be frowned upon if used to prove spiritual points, for we want the Word of God and not man. Using intellectual material for evidence that has been proven by the Word of God is different.

Health Topics - True health messages are desirable as medical missionary work is to be our right arm, but nothing more. Some publications make it equal to the body or greater than the body, making it appear as the articles are the right arm and the medical missionary material as the body, which is not correct.

Recipes - Seeing that many do struggle with the diet, it would be helpful to provide such for our audience. Now at some point, we have been told "the time will soon come when there will be no safety in using eggs, milk, cream, or butter, because disease in animals is increasing in proportion to the increase of wickedness among men. The time is near when, because of the iniquity of the

What Is A Boil And What Are The Causes/Symptoms?

A boil or what is also known as a skin abscess is an infection of the skin. They are mainly caused by a bacteria (Staphylococcus) that enters the body through a cut or hair follicle, or due to blocked sweat glands. However, boils can also be linked to a poor immune system, medications that weaken the immune system, diabetes, chemotherapy, poor hygiene, friction from tight clothing, kidney failure, or even an ingrown hair. If you are wondering if you have a boil, look out for these following 3 symptoms:

1. A firm red bump.
2. Pus that drains from the bump that is either white, yellow tint, green, or a mixture of the three with blood.
3. Lastly, tenderness or swelling around the area of the bump

What Is A Natural Remedy For Boils?

The Lord has supplied many natural remedies for those who would solely rely upon His resources for healing. While there are many remedies for treating a boil, I have found that organic garlic and turmeric made into a paste, have been the most effective in treating boils. Garlic contains a sulfur compound called allicin, which is a natural antibiotic. When crushed, garlic releases allicin allowing the garlic to then be used for the healing of infections and various diseases. Turmeric, another powerful remedy, contains multiple healing properties, one of the main healing properties is curcumin. Curcumin, the active ingredient in turmeric is another natural antibiotic. Curcumin is well known for its effectiveness against bacteria, viruses, and even fungi. To treat a boil at home, simply crush a clove of garlic, add 1/4 teaspoon of turmeric to the garlic, and a few drops of water until a paste is formed. Then, apply the paste mixture to the boil and put a bandage on top. This should be done twice a day. You will notice during the process that there is burning where the boil is located, this is a normal process as the boil begins to open and drain. Continue this process until the boil has completely drained. It is also important to know that while a boil is not contagious, the bacteria that causes a boil is. You can prevent this bacteria from spreading by keeping proper hygiene and washing all clothing in

Desire to live a healthy lifestyle came after studying the health message through the Bible and the Spirit Of Prophecy, where I believe true health principles are outlined perfectly. Little by little has the Lord given me understanding and I praise Him for that. Being a full time wife and mother, my duty has always been in the kitchen. But now, as the Lord has given me a greater understanding of what it means to live a healthy lifestyle, I am able to supply nutritious meals for my family and natural remedies whenever it is necessary. I now have a great passion to share this wonderful truth with others who may not know where to start.

HEALTHY AND DELICIOUS RECIPES

Alfredo Sauce

1/2 cup raw cashews

1 and 1/4 cups water

1 T. unbleached white flour

1 T. chicken seasoning

¼ t. onion powder

½ t. real salt

1 t. basil

Blend cashews, flour, seasoning, onion powder, salt, and water until creamy. Pour blended mixture into saucepan and bring to a slow boil.

Add basil and remove from heat. Ladle over cooked fettuccine noodles and serve with steamed broccoli pieces.

Almond Joys

1 and 1/2 cups boiling water

2 and 1/4 cups dates

1 t. salt

1 cup barley flour

2/3 cups almond, butter (cashew or peanut butter works too)

3 c. dried coconut (unsweetened)

Pour boiling water over dates in a blender. When softened add salt. Partially liquefy leaving some lumps.

In a large mixing bowl place flour and nut butter. Cut together until nut butter is evenly distributed. Add coconut and date mixture. Blend well.

Prepare cookie sheets by oiling them. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto cookie sheet and press an almond or two into each one. Bake 350° for about 15 minutes or until slightly brown.

Refrigerate or freeze.

Note: Melt homemade carob chips and dip the cookies in it and then place on wax paper to harden and refrigerate to keep set.

To make barley flour just take the whole grain barley and blend in Vitamix or buy it already in flour form.

The mission of The Four Angels' Messages Ministry is to alert as many Seventh-day Adventists as possible to see the need of living the Three Angels' Messages, be well studied in the messages of all four angels, and get ready very soon to go and preach them. It is our belief that not only are we the last generation, but the mark is soon to be forced upon us, and publications like this one shall be targeted. So while the presses can run, let us awake to our high calling despite others who want to remain asleep.

About The Four Angels' Messages Ministry
This ministry is founded upon the necessity to raise the standard higher and higher. It is a non-profit, volunteer group of Seventh-day Adventists who love the messages and love the people and do not want to see a single person lost.

Subscription and Donations
Although we are volunteers, the cost of this publication is challenging to provide to everyone for free, especially since future issues will be 32 pages in size. So we are asking for a subscription of $24 annually for 12 issues, and if the Lord impresses you with the means to be able to provide a donation, we definitely would welcome such and put it to proper use including helping pay for subscriptions of those who cannot afford the cost. The publication is free online in PDF format.

We are a "tithe-worthy ministry" according to clear biblical and Spirit of Prophecy guidelines.

CONTEND FOR THE EVERLASTING GOSPEL

Cary Rodgers, Jr., pastor and health director of Pathway to Peace Ministries in Peachland, NC with four children and a wonderful godly wife, Elene.

People today need a gospel that will set them free from sin and lead them to eternal life through the wonder working power of the blood of Jesus Christ. This gospel is the everlasting gospel of the three angels' messages of Revelation 14:6-12 which includes the loud cry message of the fourth angel in Revelation 18:1-4.

Revelation 14:6-12

- 6 And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,
- 7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is

- come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.
- 8 And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.
- 9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,
- 10 The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:
- 11 And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.
- 12 Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

The three angels' messages, the everlasting gospel, brings about everlasting results for the glory of God. The everlasting gospel is absolute Bible truth that cannot be changed or adjusted. Just like in math 1 + 1 will always be 2 throughout eternity. It is absolute.

1 + 1 will never be any other number besides two – period. There are no philosophies or theories that can change that. How many ways can someone dial your phone number right? One, of course. How many ways can someone dial your phone number wrong? Many! The everlasting gospel helps you dial the right “number” to connect to Jesus, holiness, and eternal life. Satan’s many lies lead you to dial the wrong “number”. The everlasting gospel exposes the counterfeits of Satan and reveals the truth of Jesus Christ and His one true remnant church in the last days.

The everlasting gospel stands alone and has proven itself as the Truth over the years. 2 Timothy 3:16 says, “All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness.” “Inspiration” means that God “divinely breathed” into all scriptures from Genesis to Revelation. This means that God's Holy Bible is a living book that reveals the expressed will and purpose of God. This is the reason why no man, woman, pastor, church official, or denomination has a right to tamper, change, or corrupt God's everlasting gospel of the three angels' messages.

The everlasting gospel is the only gospel that God's remnant are to live by, teach, and preach in these last days. In Galatians 1:7, Paul warns God's people to beware of a perverted gospel of the salvation

WHY WOULD I WANT THIS PUBLICATION?

Directly, the reason why a Seventh-day Adventist would want to read this publication monthly is because it is filled with meat in due season. Sure, other SDA publications may claim such, but few can claim the most present truth messages possible.

Let us put it to the test. We are told that the final events consist of:

- Sunday legislation
- Little time of trouble
- Outright attack upon the Sabbath making the Mark of the Beast very much an issue
- Seven last plagues
- Welcoming Jesus for the greatest event of all – the second coming

Some other details may be missing, but those are pretty much the highlights. Now, where do you put the close of probation? Oh, you say - that is easy. It appears before the seven last plagues, but after the Mark of the Beast is fully enforced. If that is your answer, you are not wholly wrong, but not wholly right either. When the Bible and Spirit of Prophecy teach that “judgment must begin at the house of God” (1 Peter 4:17), which means, probation closes first for the church, we have a serious message to make people aware of and very few SDA publications are doing that.

Where do you place the close of the church’s probation?

“Times that will try men's souls are just before us, and those who are weak in the faith will not stand the test of those days of peril. The great truths of revelation are to be carefully studied, for we shall all want an intelligent knowledge of the word of God. By Bible study and daily communion with Jesus we shall gain clear, well-defined views of individual responsibility and strength to stand in the day of trial and temptation. He whose life is united to Christ by hidden links will be kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation.” {Testimonies for the Church Volume Five, page 273.1}

Did you catch it? It is before that event of trying men’s souls [women’s too] that we are to be well informed so that we can stand and be kept by God’s power through the trying times. The trying times are not the time to begin studying and cleaning up our lives – now is the time.

So when Sunday legislation is introduced and passed, that will begin a more physical separation than is already being experienced. In other words, Sunday coming in is the close of the church's probation. The reason it closes then is because when it comes in, the church is described as:

“And at the commencement of the time of trouble, we were filled with the Holy Ghost as we went forth and proclaimed the Sabbath more fully.” {Early Writings, page 33.2}

When Sunday comes in, we hit the ground running under the fourth angel's message trying to win non-Seventh-day Adventists with the message, “Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues” (Revelation 18:4).

Jerry O'Donnell

So between now and Sunday, what is God doing in regard to soul winning?

“The Lord does not now work to bring many souls into the truth, because of the church members who have never been converted and those who were once converted but who have backslidden. What influence would these unconsecrated members have on new converts? Would they not make of no effect the God-given message which His people are to bear?” {Testimonies for the Church Volume Six, page 370.3}

That means our primary focus ought to be among God’s people until Sunday legislation is introduced. That does not mean we cannot be actively sowing seeds among unbelievers. Just do not be expecting a harvest of unbelievers at this time.

So, will you subscribe to this publication that is dedicated to doing things in God’s order? Wake up the servants to get ready now to give the fourth angel’s message and sow the seed among unbelievers as possible.

opposing views of climate change, that means any voice that speaks out against such is in jeopardy of being sued. That simply opens the door to continue the climate change agenda, for which the pope's solution is Sunday legislation, or as he calls it – celebrating the Eucharist.

DECEMBER 17, 2016 BOSTON GLOBE HEADLINE:

Happy Birthday, Holy Father

HIGHLIGHT: (The title says it all.)

COMMENT: Antichrist would be "full of names of blasphemy" (Revelation 17:3). How dare a human take the title of God!

DECEMBER 30, 2016 NC REGISTER HEADLINE:

Pope Francis: Rigid People Are Sick

QUOTED HIGHLIGHT: Pope Francis again returned to the theme of rigidity today, saying those who unbendingly follow the law of God are "sick" and in need of the Lord’s help.

COMMENT: "And the dragon" (defined as Satan in Rev. 12:9) "was wroth with the woman", which is defined as the Christian community at large, comparing Jeremiah 6:2 and Isaiah 51:16, "and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ" (Revelation 12:17). So these are the rigid people who do not compromise the Ten Commandments, the law of God. And they are a small group.

Satan does this through his instrument for "the dragon which gave power unto the beast" (Revelation 13:4), which is antichrist.

And what does antichrist do with God's law? He "think to change times and laws" (Daniel 7:25).

So while antichrist criticizes those rigidly wanting to keep the Ten Commandments, he’s busy leading people to break them. No wonder he is referred to as the "man of sin" (2 Thessalonians 2:3).

NOVEMBER 12, 2016 FOX NEWS HEADLINE:

Report: New Catholic Priests Expected To Preach Global Warming To Congregations

QUOTED HIGHLIGHT: In the United States, global climate change is a hot topic, particularly among Catholics who tend to be politically conservative. American political conservatives don't usually accept the science on global warming. The problem? The Catholic Church does accept the science, and now there's a request that priests learn about it as part of their formation.

COMMENT: So the brainwashing begins. With priests to be preaching global warming, that means the pope's Sunday rest is going to be suggested as the solution, and that means they are preparing the masses to step in line. There will, of course, be many who don’t believe in global warming, but to return to the enforcing of blue laws and having Sunday rest again is going to be welcomed; it's going to be acceptable in the forehead (thinking) or in the hand (actions). In other words, there will be wholehearted believers and those that just go along while not actually believing in the global warming.

JANUARY 4, 2017 CNS NEWS HEADLINE:

Andrew Garfield: ‘Donald Trump Bashes the Pope – In Effect, He Bashes Jesus Christ’

QUOTED HIGHLIGHT: I remind [Garfield] of America’s president-elect waving a Bible on the campaign trail, urging evangelical Christians to see him as the God-appointed candidate, and Garfield almost spits out his runny egg and grits. “It’s all a ruse. How can that not be clear to everybody? When the pope says that Jesus Christ was about building bridges, not building walls. And then Donald Trump bashes the pope – in effect, he bashes Jesus Christ.”

COMMENT: "And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who [is] like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?" (Revelation 13:4). Who is even allowed to criticize the pope? Even Trump is not allowed, as others are willing to defend the pope.

of Jesus Christ. He says in verse 8, “But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.” Just in case somebody missed it he repeated himself again with more emphasis in verse 9. “As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.” “Any man” includes teachers, preachers, leaders or church denominations.

Jude also warns us of a defiled and unholy gospel known as the “common salvation” in Jude 1:3 that will lead to unbelief and destruction. He says, “Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.” Strong's Greek dictionary reveals that “common” in the context of verse 3, is “profane: - defiled, unclean, unholy.” The common salvation that Jude is speaking about is a perverted and profane gospel counterfeit of Satan.

Jude 1:4 exposes those who are preaching this “common salvation” and the characteristics of this perverted gospel. It says, “For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.” In the last days these “certain men” are preachers, teachers, and church leaders who at one time were teaching the everlasting gospel of the three angels’ messages. They believed in both the law and the testimonies. They were professed keepers of God's holy seventh-day Sabbath. But in order to be accepted among the Babylonian churches and the world they compromised their position and stealthily brought in damnable heresies of the apostate churches of Babylon.

As a result, Ellen White says, “As the storm approaches, a large class who have professed faith in the third angel's message, but have not been sanctified through obedience to the truth, abandon their position and join the ranks of the opposition. By uniting with the world and partaking of its spirit, they have come to view matters in nearly the same light; and when the test is brought, they are prepared to choose the easy, popular side. Men of talent and pleasing address, who once rejoiced in the truth, employ their powers to deceive and mislead souls. They become the most bitter enemies of their former brethren. When Sabbathkeepers are brought before the courts to answer for their faith, these apostates are the most efficient agents of Satan to misrepresent and accuse them, and by false reports and insinuations to stir up the rulers against them.” Great Controversy p. 608

This is not the time to sleep or be lazy about the everlasting gospel. If you profess to be God's remnant in these last days you must tenaciously hold on and “earnestly contend” for the everlasting gospel of the three angels' messages like never before. “The true understanding of these messages is of vital importance. The destiny of souls hangs upon the manner in which they are received.” – Ellen White, Spiritual Gifts Vol. 1, p. 168. You must study, understand, and memorize it for yourself. You can NOT take this lightly. 2 Timothy 2:15 says, “Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.” According the Strong's Greek Dictionary, the word “study” in the Greek is “spoudazō” [spoo-dad'-zo] which means “to use speed, that is, to make effort, be prompt or earnest: - do (give) diligence, be diligent (forward), endeavour, labour, study.” In other words the study of the three angels' messages is urgent and you must study it with all diligence and labor. The more you study it the more it becomes prophetically alive and relevant in your life as you apply it and share it with others.

Like John the Baptist who prepared the way for the first coming of Jesus. You must with Holy Ghost power and zeal prepare the way for second coming of Jesus by sharing the everlasting gospel message that calls people to repent, turn to Jesus, forsake the world, and live within the truth of God's Word. Jesus says in Mark 1:15, “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.” This is the everlasting gospel message that we are commissioned to teach to the whole world. The Bible reveals that the everlasting gospel will cause agitation, anger, and division among the professed people of God, but we MUST give it. This gospel exposes sin, but also gives a solution and victory over sin. This gospel has the power to make all who live by it holy and righteous in this present world through Jesus Christ. This gospel preaches the law and testimonies. This gospel is true love. This gospel keeps the seventh-day Sabbath holy. This gospel does NOT waste God's time. This gospel takes care of your body. This gospel hates worldliness. This gospel throws away and deletes the worldly garbage on your mobile phone, computer, or TV. Do you still want to share it and contend for it? You MUST if you are true followers of Jesus Christ in these last days. If you want to go home to the heavenly kingdom, we have ALL got work to do in spreading the everlasting gospel. We have NO time to waste.

Jesus says in Matthew 24:14, "And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come." When one isolates this passage of scripture without its full context, Matthew 24:14 sounds nice and sweet with no persecution and opposition, a "no problem" gospel. A remote control, "just pay your tithe and offering" gospel. A gospel that you do in your spare time when you've got time to do it. A gospel that mainly paid ministers and missionaries present. NO, no, no! You must be involved in giving this everlasting gospel of the kingdom, but Jesus warns you that it comes with opposition and persecution when you study and read its full context. What is Jesus teaching us about "this gospel", the everlasting gospel that is supposed to be preached to all the world right before the second coming of Jesus Christ?

Matthew 24:9 – 14

- 9 Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.
- 10 And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.
- 11 And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.
- 12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.
- 13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.
- 14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

This is the context of this gospel that must be preached to all the world. Jesus says that you will be

DC Court of Appeals' Global Warming Decision Threatens First Amendment

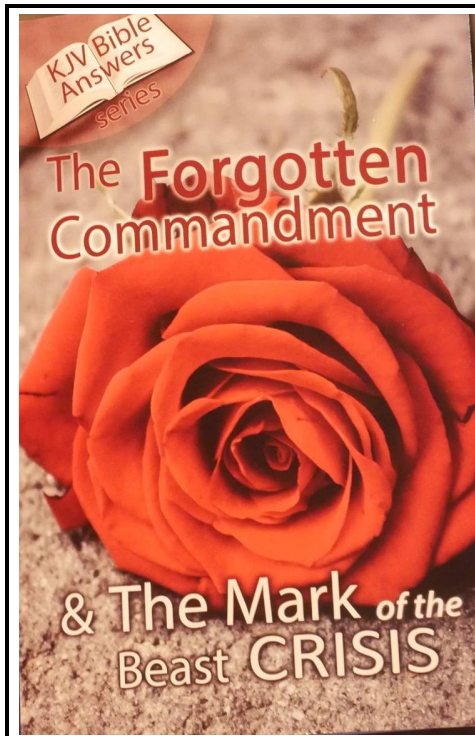

QUOTED HIGHLIGHT: The court ruled that Penn State climatologist Michael Mann's defamation suit against National Review and the Competitive Enterprise Institute can go to trial. That should send shivers down the spines of anyone who cares about open debate and challenges to scientific findings.

and Deuteronomy using just the word "lust" and all of the forms thereof and you will find no other conclusion but the fact that we should cease from flesh meats.

So, in one statement Ellen White saved so many from a four step Bible study to get the answer.

Question: Since we are to have the Seal of God to be saved and we teach that the Seal of God is keeping the Sabbath, how can one quickly demonstrate this to a non-believer from the Bible?

Answer: There are many ways to prove out the Seal of God but one of the fastest methods is in this manner.

First, establish that the seal of God is required from Revelation 7:2-3, "And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads."

Second, establish that the words "seal" and "sign" are synonyms. Romans 4:11 says, "And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which [he had yet] being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also."

Third, establish that the sign between us and God is Sabbath keeping. Exodus 31:13 says, "Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying, Verily my sabbaths ye shall keep: for it [is] a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that [ye] may know that I [am] the LORD that doth sanctify you." Ezekiel 20:12 says, "Moreover also I gave them my sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I [am] the LORD that sanctify them." Ezekiel 20:20 says, "And hallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I [am] the LORD your God."

hated for giving the everlasting gospel for "my name sake". This gospel will divide families and friends. It will cause envy and jealousy for those who reject it. You will be hated, persecuted, abused, reveled, and talked about. You may be sent to prison or tortured. The rejectors of truth may kill you or your children. BUT only those who "endure" with this everlasting gospel "unto the end, the same shall be saved." "Endure" means to "remain" in the Greek. The remnant in the last days must fervently remain in the everlasting gospel truth of God's word until the end. Even though it will bring hardship, you will be saved because you remained in it and shared it to the world.

Could it be that the reason there is not intense hatred and persecution among God's remnant today is because we have become quiet and comfortable with this present world? Are we contending for the everlasting gospel?

"There is another and more important question that should engage the attention of the churches of today. The apostle Paul declares that 'all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution'. 2 Timothy 3:12. Why is it, then, that persecution seems in a great degree to slumber? The only reason is that the church has conformed to the world's standard and therefore awakens no opposition. The religion which is current in our day is not of the pure and holy character that marked the Christian faith in the days of Christ and His apostles. It is only because of the spirit of compromise with sin, because the great truths of the word of God are so indifferently regarded, because there is so little vital godliness in the church, that Christianity is apparently so popular with the world. Let there be a revival of the faith and power of the early church, and the spirit of persecution will be revived, and the fires of persecution will be rekindled." – Ellen White, Great Controversy, p. 48

The everlasting gospel is absolute Bible truth that cannot be changed or adjusted.

Are you ready to rekindle the flames of persecution? Contend and give the truth of the everlasting gospel through the power of the Holy Spirit. Make this your steady aim starting now. Don't flinch or let go! Personally, and as a family, be determined to fulfill God's great everlasting gospel commission with no apologies.

What does Jesus say to those on the "battlefield" in the last days getting shot at, attacked, children killed, because they live and give the everlasting gospel?

- 2 Timothy 2:1-4
- 1 Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.
 - 2 And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall

- be able to teach others also.
- 3 Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.
 - 4 No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

"Be strong" in Jesus Christ and "endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ!" If you are a true good soldier of Jesus Christ in these last days giving the everlasting gospel with ALL your heart you will not waste any of God's precious time on ESPN, NBA, NFL, PGA, Superbowls, Netflix, and Hollywood. You will cut the cable and the DISH Network because it will not assist you in giving the three angels' messages. If you are "entangled" with Lebron and Curry, Jay Z and Beyounce, Judge Judy and Night Court, Brad Pitt and Angelina and others alike, you are NOT a true soldier for Jesus. If you are spending your time "entangled" in your retirement plan, career, tee time at the golf course, entertainments and amusements you are only a professed remnant wanna-be and will join the ranks of the opposition and persecute the true people of God.

In the closing time of earth's history, Jesus wants us all to afflict our souls and abide in the truth and love of Him. Repent for the kingdom of Heaven is VERY near. Watch, pray, study, and live the life of Jesus. Jesus is coming extremely soon. Until then let's contend for the everlasting gospel.

Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber toward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime. (Daniel 6:10)

Let's face it, if we are serious about getting through Babylon, we need to take Daniel's example and also be praying at least three times a day.

To help direct one's thought on a subject, this website offers three Bible references a day: morning, afternoon, and evening.

MORNING—Sequential verse from the Old Testament and a mini study.

AFTERNOON—Random biblical message without restriction to any particular part of the Bible.

EVENING—Sequential verse from the New Testament and a mini study.

Tailored more for the non-Adventist, we do keep it all Bible based, but do have to admit, inspiration does come from the writings of Ellen White.

What is a WATCHMAN for, unless it be to watch for EVIL and give the WARNING? What is a shepherd for, unless it be to watch for EVERY danger lest the sheep be harmed and destroyed by wolves? What excuse could a shepherd plead for suffering the flock to stray from the true pasture, and be torn and scattered and devoured by wolves? How would an excuse stand made by the shepherd that the sheep led him astray? They left the true pasture, and led him out of the way? Such a plea would tell with force AGAINST that shepherd's ability to watch over the sheep. No more confidence could be placed in him as a faithful shepherd to care for the sheep, and bring them back as they might stray from the right path. THIRD angel's message must move out decidedly, and in the Spirit and power of God FEARLESSLY PREACH THE TRUTH AND LET IT CUT. They should ELEVATE the STANDARD of TRUTH and URGE the people to come up to it. It has TOO FREQUENTLY been LOWERED to meet the people in their condition of DARKNESS and SIN. It is the POINTED TESTIMONY that will bring them up to decide. A peaceful testimony will NOT do this. The people have the privilege of listening to this kind of teaching from popular pulpits; but those servants to whom GOD has entrusted the solemn, fearful message which is to BRING OUT and FIT UP a people for the coming of CHRIST should bear a PLAIN, POINTED TESTIMONY. Our TRUTH is as much more solemn than that of nominal professors, as the HEAVENS are HIGHER than the EARTH. (Testimonies to the Church Volume 1 Page 248 Paragraph 2 Ellen White)

JESUS KNOWS the circumstances of EVERY SOUL. You may say, I am sinful, very sinful. You may be; but the WORSE you are, the MORE you need JESUS. He turns NO weeping, contrite one away. The souls that turn to Him for REFUGE, JESUS lifts above the accusing and the strife of tongues. No man or evil angel can impeach these souls. CHRIST unites them to His own divine-human nature. They stand beside the great Sin Bearer, in the light proceeding from the throne of GOD. "Who shall lay anything to the charge of God's elect? It is GOD that justifieth. Who is he that condemneth? It is CHRIST that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of GOD, who also maketh intercession for us." Romans 8:33, 34. (Desire of Ages Page 568 Ellen White)

SATAN will manufacture his diversions that men may not think about GOD. The WORLD, filled with sport and pleasure - loving, is always thirsting for some NEW INTEREST. And how little time and thought are given to the Creator of the heavens and the earth. GOD calls upon His creatures to turn their attention from the confusion and perplexity around them, and admire His handiwork. The heavenly bodies are worthy of contemplation. GOD has made them for the benefit of man, and as we study His works, ANGELS of GOD will be by our side to enlighten our minds, and guard them from satanic deception. (Manuscript 126, 1901 Ellen White)

But light and darkness cannot harmonize. Between truth and error there is an irrepressible conflict. To uphold and defend the one is to attack and overthrow the other. Our Saviour Himself declared: "I came not to send peace, but a sword." Matthew 10:34. (The Great Controversy Page 126 Paragraph 3 Ellen White)

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Question: Ellen White states "Many who are now only half converted on the question of meat eating will go from God's people to walk no more with them." {CD page 382} Basically she is stating that only Vegetarians will be saved in the last days. If such statements, as we are told, are but an enlightenment of the Bible, where does it state such in the Bible that this is the case?

Answer: One of the things that is great about Ellen White's writings is that they are very direct and of a no-nonsense manner. They cut through matching of verses with verses with verses to come to the same conclusion. Unfortunately, the same blessing has created lazy Bible students as well. With that said, let us do a little Bible study.

Question number 1: Who is the Bible most directly written for? "Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come" (1 Corinthians 10:11). It is written for those living near the second coming. It is written for the last generation. We could stretch it a bit and state that it is written for those living in the last days in which Daniel tells us they started when "many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased" (Daniel 12:4). Some set the date of 1798. In either case, it covers the last generation, which I believe is you and me.

Question number 2: What specifically does Paul direct our attention to for the last generation? "Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted" (1 Corinthians 10:6). So lusting is what we ought to avoid. But it is not just any lusting.

Question number 3: What group of people is Paul directing our study towards? "Moreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea" (1 Corinthians 10:1-2). It is the desert experience of Moses and the Israelites.

Question number 4: What did they lust after in the desert? "And the mixt multitude that [was] among them fell a lusting: and the children of Israel also wept again, and said, Who shall give us flesh to eat?" (Numbers 11:4). "And the people stood up all that day, and all [that] night, and all the next day, and they gathered the quails: he that gathered least gathered ten homers: and they spread [them] all abroad for themselves round about the camp. And while the flesh [was] yet between their teeth, ere it was chewed, the wrath of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD smote the people with a very great plague. And he called the name of that place Kibrothhattaavah: because there they buried the people that lusted" (Numbers 11:32-33). Not just once, but twice for emphasis, it is stated that the people lusted after flesh foods when God was providing them with a Vegetarian, even a Vegan, diet. In fact, Deuteronomy 12:15, 12:21, and 14:26 also connect flesh foods with lusting. Look for yourself in all the books of Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers,
