God has warned His people not to become absorbed in politics. We cannot bear the sign of God as His commandment-keeping people, if we mingle with the strife of the world. We are not to give our minds to political issues. God's people are walking contrary to His will when they mix up with politics, and those who commence this work in the Southern States reveal that they are not taught and led by God, but by that spirit which creates contention and strife and every evil work. We are subjects of the Lord's kingdom, and we are to work to establish that kingdom in righteousness.

Dear Reader,

As I read headline news items, usually on the Internet, doing my best not to waste a whole lot of time being distracted from greater work to be done, I notice a whole lot of political unrest that is even grabbing the attention of professed, true Seventh-day Adventists. In some cases, whole churches are involved, of which do not necessarily profess to be true to the Seventh-day Adventist teachings.

Yes, there is unfairness. Yes, we are told to do what we can to relieve unnecessary suffering, but at the same time, we need to be balanced with the examples found in the Bible.

These political unrests range from sports to celebrities to actual politicians. There is the NFL Blackout where a boycott of sorts is being conducted. Though I do not know all of the details, as sports should not be distracting to anyone to begin with, in fact, we ought to not even consider its existence, I have learned that a church, led by the pastor, made a video showing their participation in the blackout.

We have had other Seventh-day Adventist churches march with the Black Lives Matter group. And for a long period of time now, we have issues brought forth regarding white police officers mistreating blacks. And how many get caught up with one scandal after another in politics? Who cares about Hilary's e-mails and her cover-up! Who cares if Obama was Muslim or not! Who cares if Trump and the Russians colluded or not! Even the activities of Trump are drawing away the attention by Seventh-day Adventists as Trump decides not to renew DACA, an immigration financial assistance for those who were brought into the country as children. It is all a distraction.

Look at Jesus' example when politics came His way. Presented with a coin to see if He supported the Roman authority or was repulsed by it, He took the neutral ground, "Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's" (Matthew 22:21). Of course He did not support Roman rule or paganism to rule over Israel, but His mission was not to settle political issues. His mission was to call people to repentance (Matthew 9:13).

Presented with a conflict that Jesus could have easily settled, He replied, "Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?" (Luke 12:14)

This is also why Jesus did nothing to free John the Baptist from prison, nor reveal the connection between the church leaders and Rome with secret associations and agreements. In fact, He did not even try to address the political dishonesty simply in the position of the priests.

Then we have Paul who sent Onesimus, a slave, back to his owner to serve his master taking the letter found in the Book of Philemon. Why did Paul not decry the evils of slavery? Because his was not a mission involving political issues. Read carefully, the letter is to not only

The mission of The Four Angels' Messages Ministry is to alert as many Seventh-day Adventists as possible to see the need of living the Three Angels' Messages, be well studied in the messages of all four angels, and get ready very soon to go and preach them. It is our belief that not only are we the last generation, but the mark is soon to be forced upon us, and publications like this shall be targeted. So while the presses can run, let us awake to our high calling despite others who want to remain asleep.

One of the greatest evidences that God is real is TIME. Have you ever thought about where time came from? Humans are NOT the inventors of time. Did you know that God is the Creator of time? Have you ever thought about why God created time even before humans sinned? What is the purpose of time from the beginning when He created humans to live forever?

Remember, in Genesis God created this world in six literal 24 hour days and on the seventh day He rested, blessed, and made it holy as a blessing for all humanity. From the beginning, even before sin entered this world, God created the seventh-day Sabbath as a special time that completes a seven day week cycle. The seventh-day Sabbath is the only day in God's Creation that God commanded us to remember.

What is the purpose of time without an anticipated appointment?

The seventh-day Sabbath is the only specific anticipated appointment that God has given throughout His Creation. If you come at a different time other than the specified time set for the appointment, you will miss it. The creation of time is centered on this divine appointment of the seventh-day Sabbath. Without time, the seventh-day Sabbath could not exist. During the other six days of the week, God wants us to look forward with great anticipation to the Sabbath. Time points to a weekly Sabbath. The seventh-day Sabbath is a special time that unifies us to God. If God did not want to have a special time to unify His people, coming together for this sanctified time to worship, there would be no reason to have time. Think about it. Time was not created for the sole purpose of just counting days and years gone by.

What would be the purpose of time especially in the context of eternity?

In the new Heaven and Earth you would have no reason to keep track of your age. Can you imagine someone asking you in the new Heaven and Earth, "How old are you?" Your reply, "I'm one million, four hundred thousand, nine hundred and sixty-two years old." The only reason we track our ages now before eternity is because of the anticipation of growing old, and death. But even before sin and death, God created time for the divine appointment of His people coming together on the Sabbath day.

Even in the new Heaven and new Earth, throughout the ceaseless time of eternity, God will still have a seven-day weekly cycle. At the end of each week we will ALL unify to meet on the seventh-day Sabbath to worship our Creator. Isaiah 66:22, 23 says, "For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain. And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD."

The creation of time which points to the Sabbath is proof of the existence of God and His power. Let's take time and study TIME that God created at the beginning of the world that proves His existence and power. When did God create time? Genesis 1:1, 2 says "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And the earth was without form [desolation-no shape], and void [empty]; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters."

Darkness is the absence of light. It cannot be measured. It has no speed. In Genesis 1:3, "God said, Let there be light: and there was light." God made visible light. Notice, on the first day of creation God did not make the sun. God's word illuminated a dark world by suspending light in space without the aid of a sun. Visible light is electromagnetic waves with illuminating energy that penetrates darkness and illuminates our space allowing us to see our surroundings and its objects. Visible light is measured by its illuminating speed as it cuts through darkness. Light can travel 186,282 miles per second! That's approximately 671 million miles per hour. When a light wave travels from the sun to light the earth it takes at least 8 minutes and 17 seconds to get here.

Light was created first because it defines time. Without the visible light time could not be established, time as we know it could not exist. How is this proven? Genesis 1:4, 5 says, "And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness. And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.” This is the introduction of time to the earth. Light = day. Darkness = night. “Evening” is defined as dusk or sunset at the beginning of darkness. Time was created on the first day of Creation.

All over the world the measurement of time is the same.

Why? God designed it that way to point to His special seventh-day Sabbath and as a sign of His awesome power, glory, and promises.

According to Genesis 1:14-19, the sun, moon, and stars were created on the fourth day of Creation. Before the sun was created it is obvious that light was suspended in space to light the world. On the fourth day God gathered the visible light and put it in a round star we call the sun in the midst of space. This round earth orbits around the sun as it rotates on its axis. Also, on the fourth day, God made the moon to revolve around the earth to reflect the light of the sun at night. He also gathered the light and put it in distant stars millions of light years away from our planet that can only be seen at night.

Why did God make the sun and the moon? Genesis 1:14 says “And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and tinguishing mark of His Creation, power, glory, and promises. The sun and the moon are God’s time clock to count the days (24 hours), months (12), seasons (spring, summer, fall, and winter), and years as a monument, or sign, of His power, authority, Creation, and promises. It is also the mark of His authority over the creation of time and its management. Psalms 19:1-3 says, “The heavens declare the glory

And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.

Genesis 1:5

years.” There are five main purposes for the sun and moon: 1. Divide day from night 2. Seasons (determined by the position of the earth and tilt of the axis as it orbits around the sun – spring, summer, fall and winter) 3. Days (24 hours, evening [sunset] to evening – one complete literal day) 4. Years (one complete rotation around the sun) 5. Signs

Why is one of the main purposes for the sun and moon used as “signs”? “Sign” in Hebrew means: “monument, evidence-proof, or distinguishing mark.” In other words, the sun and the moon are monuments, proof, and God’s special dis-of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge. There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.” “Declare” in Hebrew means “to inscribe”. So the heavens inscribe a line in the sky bearing the signature of God as a perpetual monument that speaks loudly to us of the glory, magnificence, and power of our Creator. People all over the world can understand its message for “there is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.” 📖

Self-supporting churches have made a mistake in following the example of the General Conference churches, but should the G.C. be our example in finishing the work that God has laid on SDA's to do?

Paul is an example of the last generation of ministers in the earth. I say this because he was of the tribe of Benjamin. Benjamin was the youngest of the sons of Jacob. Benjamin represents the last generation as he was the last one to be born of Jacob. Paul travelled and spoke in many locations. He also raised up many churches in different locations. The New Testament reveals that Paul established elders once a church was raised up and then moved on to new territory to erect the next church. It is vital to follow Paul's example so that the work can go forward.

Too many of our ministers have become complacent, Laodicean, and are blindly following the example of what other ministries are doing rather than looking at the Bible and Spirit of Prophecy as our guide.

Once a minister has been with a church a few years and has elders who understand and can explain the message, he is to move on to new territory as Joshua and Paul did and organize and erect other churches. Elders should be running the churches, not pastors. It is not enough to just tell them to watch my service online and worship at home away from the apostasy in the mainstream churches. The flock in other areas need to be blessed with the gifts and talents that God has placed in the ministry. It is selfish to pour all the gifts and talents into one particular field or city. We have taken a narrow approach to the work. Our ministers need to have a much broader scope of the work before us.

PRESENT TRUTH must go to EVERY nation, kindred, tongue, and people. Lighthouses need to be raised up all over America and the world so that the church members in those communities can work their respective field or city. Wherever God opens the door for souls to be reached, churches need to be organized, and trained so that the work can truly be finished. Notice what the Testimony of Jesus says in the following quotations:

"Our ministers are not to hover over the churches, regarding the churches in some particular place as their special care. And our churches should not feel jealous and neglected if they do not receive ministerial labor. They should themselves take up the burden, and labor most earnestly for souls. Believers are to have root in themselves, striking firm root in Christ, that they may bear fruit to His glory. As one man, they are to strive to attain one object,--the saving of souls." {AUCR, August 1, 1902 par. 7}

"All who know the truth should impart this knowledge to others. We need now to train men, and set them at work, giving them every facility for the impartation of truth. There is at this time a great dearth of laborers.

Scores of men and women might be set at work. This need should have been foreseen. Our faith is not proportionate to the light God has given us. When our hearts are emptied of all selfishness, and cleansed by the Spirit of Christ, we shall be vessels meet for the Master's use." {AUCR, August 1, 1902 par. 8}

"Our ministers should plan wisely, as faithful stewards. They should feel that it is not their duty to hover over the churches already raised up, but that they should be doing aggressive evangelistic work, preaching the Word and doing house-to-house work in places that have not yet heard the truth. . . . They will find that nothing is so encouraging as doing evangelistic work in new fields." --Letter 169, 1904. {Ev 382.3}

"If the ministers would get out of the way, if they would go forth into new fields, the members would be obliged to bear responsibilities, and their capabilities would increase by use." --Letter 56, 1901. {Ev 382.4}

"As I traveled through the South on my way to the conference, I saw city after city that was unworked. What is the matter? The ministers are hovering over churches which know the truth while thousands are perishing out of Christ." {Ev 381.2}

"If the proper instruction were given, if the proper methods were followed, every church member would do his work as a member of the body. He would do Christian missionary work. But the churches are dying, and they want a minister to preach to them." {Ev 381.3}

"They should be taught to bring a faithful tithe to God, that He may strengthen and bless them. They should be brought into working order, that the breath of God may come to them. They should be taught that unless they can stand alone, without a minister, they need to be converted anew, and baptized anew. They need to be born again."--

Manuscript 150, 1901.

"Instead of keeping the ministers at work for the churches that already know the truth, let the members of the churches say to these laborers: 'Go work for souls that are perishing in darkness.'

We ourselves will carry forward the services of the church. We will keep up the meetings, and, by abiding in Christ, will maintain spiritual life. We will work for souls that are about us, and we will send our prayers and our gifts to sustain the laborers in more needy and destitute fields."--Testimonies, vol. 6, p. 30. (1900) {Ev 382.1}

"The churches that have not life in themselves, that have lost their spiritual discernment, call for ministers to come to their help, to bring them the breath of life. But the ministers have other work to do. They must carry the message of truth to those who know it not. Those ministers who hover about the churches, who have not a clear cut message, which, like a sharp, two-edged sword, cuts both ways, will do the churches harm. They will not "Place after place is to be visited; church after church is to be raised up. Those who take their stand for the truth are to be organized into churches, and then the minister is to pass on to other equally important fields." {Ev 353.3}

"Just as soon as a church is organized, let the minister set the members at work. They will need to be taught how to labor successfully. . . ." {Ev 353.4}

"The power of the gospel is to come upon the companies raised up, fitting them for service. Some of the new converts will be so filled with the power of God that they will at once enter the work. They will labor so diligently that they will have neither time nor disposition to weaken the hands of their brethren by unkind criticism. Their one desire will be to carry the truth to the regions beyond."--Testimonies, vol. 7, p. 20. (1902) work for the salvation of souls that are in great peril because they know not the truth, and they will die spiritually themselves, and trouble and discourage those who try to help them." 6MR 65. {PaM 121.3} territories and fields of labor and raise up other churches. The established churches should be trusted to the Elders. The idea of a pastor hovering over the initial church that he has raised up leads to a PAPAL mentality in the pastor and his flock. Many of the ministers desire too much CONTROL of God's work and it leads them to feel that they are justified in hovering over a church, but this is not in line with the Spirit of Christ. When the pastor chairs all the meetings and makes every decision for the church, the flock becomes weak because they are constantly looking to him for guidance, rather than to God. The flock MUST learn to rely on God to settle their difficulties and challenges. This will allow their faith to grow and remove this selfish PAPAL spirit in the ministry of having one man's mind controlling the minds of others. I say these things in love. I must discharge my duty faithfully as I refuse by the grace of God to have any blood on my shoulders. I love the ministry but I love

God more. And if these issues are not addressed, the work of God will continue to languish and souls will continue to perish outside of Christ and without the sealing message that you and I have been blessed to know. May God help us to remove our pride and see our mistakes and humbly follow the way that Jesus is leading. The 144,000 follow the Lamb whithersoever He goeth. Will you follow Jesus and do the work HIS way? 📖

Snares of Satan

Ellen White

- A messenger of God, more than a prophet
- One of the founders of the Seventh-day Adventist Church

I saw that Satan bade his angels lay their snares especially for those who were looking for Christ's second appearing, and keeping all the commandments of God. Satan told his angels that the churches were asleep. He would increase his power and lying wonders, and he could hold them. "But," he said, "the sect of Sabbathkeepers we hate; they are continually working against us, and taking from us our subjects, to keep the hated law of God. Go, make the possessors of lands and money drunk with cares. If you can make them place their affections upon these things, we shall have them yet. They may profess what they please, only make them care more for money than for the success of Christ's kingdom or the spread of the truths we hate. Present the world before them in the most attractive light, that they may love and idolize it.

"We must keep in our ranks all the means of which we can gain control. The more means the followers of Christ devote to His service, the more will they injure our kingdom by getting our subjects. As they appoint meetings in different places, we are in danger. Be very vigilant then. Cause disturbance and confusion if possible. Destroy love for one another. Discourage and dishearten their ministers; for we hate them. Present every plausible excuse to those who have means, lest they hand it out. Control the money matters if you can, and drive their ministers to want and distress. This will weaken their courage and zeal. Battle every inch of ground. Make covetousness and love of earthly treasures the ruling traits of their character. As long as these traits rule, salvation and grace stand back.

"Crowd every attraction around them, and they will be surely ours. And not only are we sure of them, but their hateful influence will not be exercised to lead others to heaven. When any shall attempt to give, put within them a grudging disposition, that it may be sparingly."

I saw that Satan carries out his plans well. As the servants of God appoint meetings, Satan with his angels is on the ground to hinder the work. He is constantly putting suggestions into the minds of God's people. He leads some in one way, and some in another, always taking advantage of evil traits in the brethren and sisters, exciting and stirring up their natural besetments. If they are disposed to be selfish and covetous, Satan takes his stand by their side, and with all his power seeks to lead them to indulge their besetting sins. The grace of God and the light of truth may melt away their covetous, selfish feeling for a little, but if they do not obtain entire victory, Satan comes in when they are not under a saving influence, and withers every noble, generous principle, and they think that too much is required of them. They become weary of well-doing, and forget the great sacrifice which Jesus made to redeem them from the power of Satan and from hopeless misery.

Satan took advantage of the covetous, selfish disposition of Judas, and led him to murmur when Mary poured the costly ointment upon

Jesus. Judas looked upon this as a great waste, and declared that the ointment might have been sold, and given to the poor. He cared not for the poor, but considered the liberal offering to Jesus extravagant. Judas prized his Lord just enough to sell Him for a few pieces of silver. And I saw that there were some like Judas among those who profess to be waiting for their Lord. Satan controls them, but they know it not.

God cannot approve of the least degree of covetousness or selfishness, and He abhors the prayers and exhortations of those who indulge these evil traits. As Satan sees that his time is short, he leads men on to be more and more selfish and covetous, and then exults as he sees them wrapped up in themselves, close, penurious, and selfish. If the eyes of such could be opened, they would see Satan in hellish triumph, exulting over them, and laughing at the folly of those who accept his suggestions and enter his snares.

Satan and his angels

SATAN: Control the money matters if you can, and drive their ministers to want and distress. This will weaken their courage and zeal.

Christian Experience and Teachings of Ellen G. White, page 171.2

mark all the mean and covetous acts of these persons, and present them to Jesus and His holy angels, saying reproachfully: "These are Christ's followers! They are preparing to be translated!" Satan compares their course with passages of Scripture in which it is plainly rebuked, and then taunts the heavenly angels, saying: "These are following Christ and His word! These are the fruits of Christ's sacrifice and redemption!" Angels turn in disgust from the scene.

God requires a constant doing on the part of His people; and when they become weary of well-doing, He becomes weary of them. I saw that He is greatly displeased with the least manifestation of selfishness on the part of His professed people, for whom Jesus spared not His own precious life. Every selfish, covetous person will fall out by the way. Like Judas, who sold his Lord, they will sell good principles and a noble, generous disposition for a little of earth's gain. All such will be sifted out from God's people. Those who want heaven must, with all the energy which they possess, be encouraging the principles of heaven. Instead of withering up with selfishness, their souls should be expanding with benevolence. Every opportunity should be improved in doing good to one another, and thus cherishing the principles of heaven. Jesus was presented to me as the perfect pattern. His life was without selfish interest, but ever marked with disinterested benevolence. {CET 171.1 - 174.2}

Wrath of God

(Third Angel's Message, part 4)

Last month we addressed the Mark of the Beast Crisis; this month we will learn about the Wrath of God. This is the Third Angel's Message.

Revelation 14:9,10 says, "And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:"

Revelation 14:9,10 reveals that those who will worship the beast and receive the mark of the beast will receive the "wrath of God" which will be poured out without mixture of mercy. (James 2:13)

What is the wrath of God? Revelation 15:1 says, "And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of God."

So the wrath of God is the seven last plagues. And these plagues will be poured out on the earth on those that receive the mark of the beast. All those that reject Jesus and the Bible will experience the full cup of wrath.

Revelation 16:1,2 says, "And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials (cups) of the wrath of God upon the earth. And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image."

When will the seven cups full of the seven last plagues be poured out? Daniel 12:1 says, "And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book."

When Jesus is finished interceding on our behalf and the work in the sanctuary is done, when everyone's destiny is determined, then it will be said, "he that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still" (Revelation 22:11); then will God's wrath, the seven last plagues, be poured out.

Now the four angels are holding the winds of strife until the servants of God are sealed in their foreheads (Revelation 7:1-3), but they are gradually being pulled back. Now is the time to be ready. When the servants of God are sealed and the work in the sanctuary is done then will the wrath of God be poured out without mixture.

To learn more about the seven last plagues look at Revelation chapters 7,8,9, and Revelation chapters 15 and 16.

Revelation 14:11 says, "And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name." We know that those who receive the mark of the beast will drink of the cup of wrath but also it says that "the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever." Does it mean that they will burn forever? Malachi 4:3 says, "And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts." The answer is no. They will not burn literally forever.

So why does it say "the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever"? What does the Bible mean when it talks about everlasting fire? Jude 1:7 says, "Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire." In Jude 1:7 it says that they suffered "the vengeance of eternal fire." 2 Peter 2:6 says, "And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;".

The Bible lets us know that Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighboring cities were burned to ashes, and even today they are still destroyed. Zephaniah 2:9 says, "Therefore as I live, saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of nettles, and salt pits, and a perpetual desolation..." Perpetual means continuance, eternal, everlasting, lasting, without end. The fire had everlasting results. The same is true with hell fire; sin and Satan will be forever destroyed. Ezekiel 35:9 says, "I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return: and ye shall know that I am the LORD." And Revelation 20:10 says, "And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are...". So Satan and his angels and the false teachers of Babylon will be cast into the lake of fire and they will be forever gone. Malachi 4:3 says, "And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts." The prophecy of Genesis 3:15 will be totally fulfilled – "it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel." Satan will have received the deadly wound that will totally destroy him. Romans 16:20 says, "And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen."

You do not have to receive the wrath of God because Jesus drank the cup for all those that accept Him. John 3:16 says, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. 📖

Wife and mother to 5 children.

Works with two other ministries: It's High Time and Advent Rest.

Desire to live a healthy lifestyle came after studying the health message through the Bible and the Spirit Of Prophecy, where true health principles are perfectly outlined.

Being a full time wife and mother, my duty has always been in the kitchen. But now, as the Lord has given me a greater understanding of what it means to live a healthy lifestyle, I am able to supply nutritious meals for my family and natural remedies whenever it is necessary.

I now have a great passion to share this wonderful truth with others who may not know where to start.

Health Benefits Of Celery Seed

Celery seed does not come from the yummy green leafy stalk that we know as just "celery". Celery seed actually comes from a wild ancestor of the celery plant sometimes referred to as lovage, smallage, or Chinese celery. The plant can grow 2-3 feet tall, has 3-5 segmented leaves, and flowers that contain small white petals.

These tiny seeds may be bitter, however, they are full of minerals, flavonoids, and phytochemicals. From potassium, iron, magnesium, phosphorus, and iron, to its natural anti-inflammatory known as pthalide. Celery seed also contains coumarin, which is a natural substance that helps to aid as a blood thinner. These tiny seeds also contain linoleic acid, an omega-6 fatty acid.

While celery seed is widely known to be used as a diuretic, its beneficial uses go beyond replacement of water pills. Celery seed is a wonderful natural remedy for those suffering with high blood pressure, high cholesterol, anxiety, muscle spasms, inflammation of all sorts, menstrual cramps, the flu, common colds, kidney stones, rheumatism, arthritis, gout, and even cancerous tumors. This powerful seed can also reverse liver damage caused by the use of acetaminophens (an ingredient found in over the counter pain medicines). Since celery seeds are both antibiotic and antiseptic, it also aids in curing infections from the urinary tract, bladder, kidneys.

Celery seed can be taken in multiple different forms. From powder, whole seed, tea, to extract form (essential oil). While the celery seeds are beneficial for curing, these seeds can also be used to prevent sickness or disease, and help to keep the body in overall good health.

Pregnant women should not consume celery seed as it can cause uterine contractions. 📖

Authorized KJV vs Catholic Bible

- Author of What Does It Mean For the World To Have One Mind?

If you are using anything but the KJV, you are using a Catholic influenced Bible [see June, 2017 issue for details], which strategically twists and leaves out key words and verses so as to make even the

They have more twists and deletions as compared to any modern version. According to Walter Veith, there are over 1,000 such changes as compared to the NIV's 600 changes. That does not make the NIV better, it just shows the influence upon all of them.

In our current example, we address another significant difference between the Bible versions regarding Hebrews 9:12. This one is specifically a direct attack upon Seventh-day Adventist doctrine of the sanctuary and 1844.

King James Bible: Neither by the blood of need of the sanctification process either. It would simply be credited to us in our sinfulness.

New King James Version Not with the blood of goats and calves, but with His own blood He entered the Most Holy Place once for all, having obtained eternal redemption.

New International Version He did not enter by means of the blood of goats and calves; but he entered the Most Holy Place once for all by his own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption.

New Living Translation With his own blood--not

Non-KJV versions of the Bible undermine the sanctuary doctrine, which is what defines us uniquely!

Our apologies for leaving out the horrid version of NKJV. We have been using BibleHub.com to collect all of the Bible references and did not notice the lack of NKJV in the list. It is not an updated version of the King James Version as one is led to believe.

HOW MANY VEGANS ARE THERE IN AMERICA?

5% of the population of the U.S is vegetarian

Half of those are Vegan

<https://news.therawfoodworld.com/16-million-people-us-now-vegan-vegetarian/>

WHEN DID VEGANISM START?

The term vegan was coined in 1944 by Donald Watson when he co-founded the Vegan Society in England, at first to mean "non-dairy vegetarian" and later to refer to "the doctrine that man should live without exploiting animals."^[6]

Interest in veganism increased in the 2000s; vegan food became increasingly available in supermarkets and restaurants in many countries, and several top athletes in endurance sports, such as the Ironman triathlon and the ultramarathon, began to practise veganism and raw veganism.^[7]

VEGANISM or HEALTH REFORMER:

VEGANS DO THE FOLLOWING:

- mix fruit & vegetables at a meal
- eat more than 3-4 dishes at a meal
- eat more than 2-3 kinds of food at a meal
- drink with their meals
- use condiments
- use vinegar or anything with vinegar in it
- use fermented items such as miso, tempeh, yogurt
- use chili peppers, jalapenos, and hot peppers

- use hot sauce, Tabasco, etc.
- use black & white pepper, and cayenne in their food
- use nutmeg, cinnamon, and allspice
- use food coloring
- use baking soda & baking powder
- drink coffee, energy drinks, and tea (not herbal)
- drink soda & diet soda
- drink alcohol or eat food with alcohol in it
- eat chocolate, fry their food or cook with any grease
- eat potato chips, fried corn chips, fried fries
- eat mints, candies, and gum
- snack
- eat between meals
- don't eat at regular times
- eat right before bed

HEALTH REFORMERS:

- DON'T mix fruit & vegetables at a meal because it causes fermentation in the stomach
- DON'T eat more than 3-4 dishes at a meal because it

- causes fermentation in the stomach
- DON'T eat more than 2-3 kinds of food at a meal because it causes fermentation in the stomach
 - DON'T drink with their meals because it makes digestion difficult...causes food to rot in the stomach
 - DON'T use condiments because they poison the blood, causes anemia, messes with the platelets, etc.
 - DON'T use vinegar because it poisons the blood, causes anemia, messes with the platelets, etc.
 - DON'T use fermented items like miso, tempeh, yogurt, etc. because it poisons the blood
 - DON'T use chili peppers, jalapenos, and hot peppers because they tear down the lining of the stomach, poison blood
 - DON'T use hot sauce, tobacco, etc. because they tear down the lining of the stomach, poison blood
 - DON'T use black & white pepper, & cayenne in their food because they
 - tear down the lining of the stomach, poison blood
 - DON'T use nutmeg, cinnamon, and all-spice because they tear down the lining of the stomach, poison blood
 - DON'T use food coloring because it causes cancer, messes with transmitters in the brain
 - DON'T use baking soda & baking powder because they poison the blood, disturb PH of the stomach
 - DON'T drink coffee, energy drinks, and tea because they mess with the nervous system; cause anemia
 - DON'T drink soda & diet soda because they mess with the nervous system; cause anemia
 - DON'T drink alcohol or eat food with alcohol in it destroys brain cells; damages the Liver
 - DON'T eat chocolate because in it contains poisons and causes numerous health problems
 - DON'T fry their food or cook with any grease because it poisons the blood, causes heart disease, etc.

 - DON'T eat mints, candies, and gum because they are full of harmful ingredients that poison the blood
 - DON'T snack because it messes with proper digestion time...causes fermentation in the stomach; poisons the blood
 - DON'T eat between meals
- "The health reform is just what the name indicates it to be...there is too great a mixture of foods provided...soda and saleratus, rich gravies and desserts are used far too freely. We have certainly departed from the simplicity of diet. {8mr 172.1}
- We shall soon reach a time when we must understand the meaning of a simple diet. The time is not far hence, when we shall be obliged to adopt a diet very different from our present diet. {8mr 172.2}
- ...We need to study the art of preparing in a simple manner the fruits, grains, and vegetables. We do not need these complex combi- nations that are provided. As the matter now stands we are in danger of making dyspeptics. I would ask, how many are standing by the old principles of health reform, as they were given to us years ago? {8mr 172.3}

What to do about this:

"...Send into the churches workers who will set the principles of health reform in their connection with the third angel's message before every family and individual. Encourage all to take a part in work for their fellow-men, and see if the breath of life will not quickly return to these churches." {tm 415.2}

The conclusion:

"...Much depends upon the question of health reform. Unless our churches occupy a higher platform upon this subject, they will not be able to appreciate the truth for this time." {1mr 62.2}

Questions And Answers

Jerry O'Donnell

- Author of What Does It Mean For the World To Have One Mind?
- Bible Worker, Evangelist, Pastor, Church Planter

QUESTION: Should true Christians celebrate Labor Day?

ANSWER: "Through the observance of holidays the people both of the world and of the churches have been educated to believe that these lazy days are essential to health and happiness, but the results reveal that they are full of evil, which is ruining the health and the morals, and demoralizing the country. The youth generally are not educated to diligent habits. Cities and even country towns are becoming like Sodom and Gomorrah, and like the world as it was in the days of Noah. The training of the youth in those days was after the same order as children are being educated and trained in this age, to love excitement, to glorify themselves, to follow the imagination of their own evil hearts. Now as then, depravity, cruelty, violence, and crime are the results." {12MR 89.2}

"Those who claim to be the children of God are in no case to bind up with the labor unions that are formed or that shall be formed. This the Lord forbids. Cannot those who study the prophecies see and understand what is before us?"--Letter 201, 1902.

If we are to having nothing to do with labor unions, why would true Christians celebrate a day that was instituted through labor unions? Now with that said, I believe we ought to keep Labor Day to the fullest meaning... labor, work, etc.

QUESTION: When we pray for something specific, like a job, are we supposed to keep praying for it, or pray once and trust God to answer? The Bible seems to say both ways are right. It says pray without ceasing, on the other hand it says to put out a fleece and that is only once. Which is it?

ANSWER: The most direct answer is "Pray without ceasing" (1 Thessalonians 5:17). And in parable form, "I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me" (Luke 18:5).

So it is not a once and done prayer. Until we get an answer, do not cease; besides, praying for the salvation of certain souls may take a lifetime.

Now in regards to the fleece, that was used in a test of answered prayer or command of God. That is not the same as praying for something to which no answer was given. Do keep in mind that we ought to balance the fleece test, though, with that of having faith. God was patient with Gideon, but with others who questioned God, to Zacharias for example, it was said, "Thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season" (Luke 1:20).

In better perspective, pray without ceasing for a job. If one is offered a job, then use the fleece type prayer to see if one should take it.

QUESTION: Is being punctual, especially for Sabbath services, important in our relationship with God?

ANSWER: "Those whose duty it is to select teachers should be guarded, and not urge those into the school who are not fitted to exert a good influence. How is the teacher's behavior? Is he punctual? Is he cleanly and neat? This should have attention; for these qualities are essential in a teacher. How can he enjoin these necessary acquirements upon the class unless they have an example of punctuality, of neatness, composure, and order? If the teacher is not in his place, and the class are left to amuse themselves, and the teacher comes rushing in breathless, behind time, the influence is leading to non-punctuality and disorder."--TSS 95, 96.

"God requires every man to be punctual, just, and without guile in his lips or in his heart. Be righteous in all dealings with your fellow men if you would have not only the name but the character of a Christian. Those who depart from Bible principles, and vindicate their defects as righteous, have never received the true knowledge of Christ or the experience of being in truth doers of the Word. There is nothing in the Word of God that glosses over or excuses one phase of selfishness, one approach to overreaching or dishonesty. . . ." {PH149 21.1}

Since a lack of being punctual is a characteristic of one not having a good influence, and such a one ought not be in an any important position, then yes, punctuality is a Christian attribute and lacking such is a revelation of being in improper relationship with God.

Besides this, it is a form of stealing. Just because a financial amount is not attached to the theft does not make it any less an offense in the area of stealing. Making people wait is stealing their time. Starting the worship time in a delayed manner may not steal the time from God, but it does steal from those in the congregation. Starting services fifteen, thirty, even an hour later means that the Sabbath hours of all involved have been controlled by those in charge and have shortened the people's Sabbath relationship, and such practices of "Adventist Time" must cease.

God is precise in His timing; we are to be precise in ours. Anything short of this is theft.

QUESTION: Which is greater, the church or the message?

ANSWER: Jesus asked the same type of question rhetorically. "[Ye] fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?" (Matthew 23:17). "[Ye] fools and blind: for whether [is] greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift?" (Matthew 23:19).

This question was brought to our attention because people are so defensive when those true to the Word and the Spirit of Prophecy try to warn the unconverted in the church of the apostasy. Such people being warned get defensive and even say, "Stop attacking the church!"; "We know there are problems, but just get your eyes on Jesus and all will be well!!"; "Don't you know the church shall go through!"; "You are the accusers of the brethren!"; etc.

All of these defensive statements are with error. They are based upon the fact that they, though not admitting it, are worshiping the structure more than the message. When our leaders, not only at the General Conference, or Union, or State level, or even elders and deacons in the local churches, but all supposed Seventh-day Adventists churches, are not preaching and teaching present truth, or for that matter, upholding the true doctrines, they cease spiritually from being "our brethren". They are considered "heathens". They also do not make up God's church.

And the compilation called Last Day Events, tries to put a spin on the meaning of the word "church" making one think it refers to the structure. Never does Ellen White speak of the structure going through until the end. In fact, at some point after Sunday law comes, there is not going to be a structure, yet there will still be a Seventh-day Adventist church. That is because the 144,000 will be led by God with the last day message in the purest sense and will be that church.

"The true people of God, who have the spirit of the work of the Lord and the salvation of souls at heart, will ever view sin in its real, sinful character. They will always be on the side of faithful and plain dealing with sins which easily beset the people of God. Especially in the closing work for the church, in the sealing time of the one hundred and forty-four thousand who are to stand without fault before the throne of God, will they feel most deeply the wrongs of God's professed people. This is forcibly set forth by the prophet's illustration of the last work under the figure of the men each having a slaughter weapon in his hand. One man among them was clothed with linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side. 'And the Lord said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof.'" {3T 266.2}

So it is the message that makes us Seventh-day Adventists. And if we do not hold sin in the church in its proper light, we are part of the problem and not the solution. The apostasy revealed is not for condemning. It is for calling people to not partake of it.

Are you handing out the book, The Great Hope thinking you are part of the work of handing out The Great Controversy? That is apostasy despite what Mark Finley states.

Are you welcoming in LGBTQ+ people into membership and even into officer positions? That is apostasy!

Are you enjoying the drums and the beat that is even on music recordings presented as special music? That is one of the signs that probation is about to close! And again it is apostasy.

Are you involved in pushing for women's ordination? That is apostasy.

Are you involved in the political movements of DACA, Black Lives Matter, NFL Blackout, etc.? That is apostasy.

Are you seeing nothing wrong with Ganoune Diop, Public Affairs and Religious Liberty Director for the Seventh-day Adventist Church meeting and being overly cordial with the pope as nothing is wrong? That is apostasy.

Are you seeing nothing wrong with the fact that our church will be part of those signing the document on October 31 ending the protest? That is apostasy.

Are you seeing nothing wrong with the fact that most sermons are like those of the Sunday churches focusing upon Romans and Galatians? That is apostasy.

Are you seeing downgrading the importance of the Spirit of Prophecy according to the last General Conference meeting as nothing wrong? That is apostasy, and even the last deception to come upon God's people.

Are you seeing the lack of promoting the 1844 message, the movement of Jesus in the heavenly sanctuary, as nothing serious? That is apostasy.

Do you have little concern that our church is not stronger on identifying the antichrist, as well as actually apologizing for any efforts to do so by local churches? Do you see this as simply showing ourselves friendly to win souls? That is apostasy.

Do you see nothing wrong with the General Conference using Catholic lawyers to sue local churches to have them remove the name Seventh-day Adventist from their buildings and references because they do not like their message? That is apostasy.

Did you see nothing wrong that Doug Batchelor, an outspoken person against women's ordination, being forbidden to speak in the Florida Conference which is a proponent of women's ordination? That is apostasy.

Do you see nothing wrong in allowing to stay on the payroll all the preachers who think the antichrist is actually a Muslim leader, and that scriptures should be criticized and parts removed or rewritten, and other anti-SDA doctrines as allowing the wheat and tares to grow together? That is apostasy.

Do you see nothing wrong with Loma Linda promoting a dairy-filled lifestyle instead of a Vegan diet? That is apostasy.

Do you see nothing wrong with this entire list, which is but only a small percentage of the number of apostasies, as simply being issues or problems but nothing serious? That is apostasy.

And believing apostasy or ignoring apostasy is living in deception. When these things irk you, instead of rising up against the testimony, you ought to say, "I agree that this is apostasy" and avoid it. You do not have to be as strong as we are but all activity associated with the apostasy and not just play nice must cease. Too many have no backbone to stand up, and that is sad.

QUESTION: I have lost confidence in David House's articles. In the August issue, he forgot to print EGW's last words about the GC found in General Conference Bulletin, May 19, 1913, pp. 33, 34.

ANSWER: The quote you refer to in its entirety is as follows:

An Expression of Confidence: "'I rejoice,' my brethren, 'that I have confidence in you in all things' (2 Corinthians 7:16). And while I still feel the deepest anxiety over the attitude that some are taking toward important measures connected with the development of the cause of God in the earth, yet I have strong faith in the workers throughout the field, and believe that as they meet together and humble themselves before the Lord and consecrate themselves anew to His service, they will be enabled to do His will. There are some who do not even now view matters in the right light, but these may learn to see eye to eye with their co-workers, and may avoid making serious mistakes, by earnestly seeking the Lord at this time, and by submitting their will wholly to the will of God. {2SM 401.4}

"I have been deeply impressed by scenes that have recently passed before me in the night season. There seemed to be a great movement – a work of revival – going forward in many places. Our people were moving into line, responding to God's call. My brethren, the Lord is speaking to us. Shall we not heed His voice? Shall we not trim our lamps, and act like men who look for their Lord to come? The time is one that calls for light bearing, for action. {2SM 402.1}

"I therefore . . . beseech you,' brethren, 'that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, with all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace' (Ephesians 4:1-3). – General Conference Bulletin, May 19, 1913, pp. 33, 34." {2SM 402.2}

So now let us dissect this a bit. You believe David House to be in error because he quoted the following:

"It has been some years since I have considered the General Conference as the voice of God." – 17MR 216 (1898).

"That these men should stand in a sacred place, to be as the voice of God to the people, as we once believed the General Conference to be – that is past." - GCB April 3, 1901, p. 25.

First, in the quote you provided, the title, "An Expression of Confidence", is not Ellen White's words. So those assembling the material are already controlling how one reads the quote referred to.

Second, she specifically said, "I still feel the deepest anxiety over the attitude that some are taking toward important measures connected with the development of the cause of God in the earth", which the "some" is referring to the leadership if one reads all of her "attacks" on the leadership. This is one of the reasons she was exiled to Australia. To have "deepest anxiety" means that it is on equal par with what David House quoted of Ellen White. Nothing has changed.

Third, having "strong faith in the workers throughout the field" is not the same as having strong faith in the leadership. That can even include many, many pastors of today pushing for the rewriting of the Bible, teaching for doctrines of Babylon (no sanctuary, saved by grace, distancing from the Three Angels' Messages, etc.). Workers are those that are actively engaged in the work and not those that are sitting in an office. Making a public speaking appearance is not being engaged in the work, by the way.

Fourth, she said, "as they meet together and humble themselves before the Lord and consecrate themselves anew to His service", which is not the same thing as saying that they are. It is a way of saying that they need to do that. If she would have said, "Because they are..." then that would be different.

Fifth, "There are some who do not even now view matters in the right light" is a rebuke, not a confidence thing. And again, this is not in reference to the workers, which leaves it being pointed at the few, the some that are in leadership position trying to control the activity.

Sixth, the "work of revival" is in the places, not in the leadership. It is in the people, much like today with the self supporting ministries. That is a work of revival, but we are definitely not getting that from the General Conference of today. We are getting confusion (not knowing what the Mark of the Beast is let alone who really is the anti-christ), and we are getting much activity working against the Three Angels' Messages by apologizing to the papacy whenever some major distribution of the true Great Controversy is taking place. They also have stripped out all the pertinent points of The Great Controversy, and pass off the book The Great Hope as being equal to doing the last day work. And of course bringing lawsuits against outspoken churches against the papacy does not help matters. In other words, we are seeing the ultimate "some who do not even now view matters in the right light". Look at the sermons! Preachers do not have to come out and attack the doctrines, though many do, but ignoring them pretty much makes the congregation unprepared. How many, in the month of October, preach properly about October 22, a date that ought not slip by unnoticed?

Seventh, using the words "Shall we not heed His voice?" is yet another rebuke. No one asks a question of sorts when the voice of God is being heeded. If she would have written, "Continuing to heed His voice..." that again would not be a rebuke.

Eighth, the closing paragraph once again is another rebuke because there was, as is today, much disunity. We are living in the time that Ellen White predicted, "The principles of truth that God in His wisdom has given to the remnant church, would be discarded. Our religion would be changed. The fundamental principles that have sustained the work for the last fifty years would be accounted as error. A new organization would be established. Books of a new order would be written. A system of intellectual philosophy would be introduced." (1SM 204.2) The disunity comes in at those wanting to stand on the former and correct principles standing up against all this new theology but are labeled as the ones creating disunity, "accusers of the brethren", and worse when in fact it is from the GC down through the chains of leadership that have introduced all of this garbage that we reject causing the disunity.

So, though David House makes me also question certain takes on things, not to imply that I disagree with him, for I do not, I have not lost confidence in what he presents. And yes, all articles are triple proofed by two different sets of eyes. That means what appears in print is considered acceptable in unifying the flock.

Bishops' annual Labor Day statement scores 'excessive inequality'

HIGHLIGHT: Unions must retain and recover their prophetic voice

COMMENT: "And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast. These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast" (Revelation 17:12-13).

"And the trade unions will be one of the agencies that will bring upon this earth a time of trouble such as has not been since the world began."--Letter 200, 1903, p. 3. (To Elder G. I. Butler, September 10, 1903.) {4MR 88.1}

The word PROPHETIC and PROPHECY regarding the Bible and specifically in the Spirit of Prophecy is not favorable towards trade unions. This means that antichrist is ready to get on with the final events, and they know what prophetic role trade unions are to play in those events. In other words, do not think for a moment antichrist does not know they are antichrist.

In the Bible, though referring to the "ten kings", there is a union of mind. And that union gives power to the antichrist beast to enforce the Mark, which will bring upon earth a time of trouble.

Ellen White specifically states that the trade unions will be one of those agencies accomplishing the goal of bringing on the time of trouble.

The article specifically states that the bishops are giving marching orders to the trade union. Trade unions are to recognize the need for "rest for the sake of God and family". To recognize that rest is to petition for employers to allow union members to have that time of rest with their families as well as time with God. From the Catholic Church, that time of both rest and time with God is none other than on Sunday.

So, the bishops are calling upon trade unions to start petitioning Sunday closures.

All the president's clergymen: A close look at Trump's 'unprecedented' ties with evangelicals

HIGHLIGHT: "Donald Trump knows that he can ride these evangelicals," the historian said. "He needs this as part of his base. I still can't believe that at some deep level of spiritual or moral conviction he believes what these evangelical pastors believe. I think it's utilitarian: 'Let's keep these people close.'"

COMMENT: "The dignitaries of church and state will unite to bribe, persuade, or compel all classes to honor the Sunday. The lack of divine authority will be supplied by oppressive enactments. Political corruption is destroying love of justice and regard for truth; and even in free America, rulers and legislators, in order to secure public favor, will yield to the popular demand for a law enforcing Sunday observance. Liberty of conscience, which has cost so great a sacrifice, will no longer be respected. In the soon-coming conflict we shall see exemplified the prophet's words: 'The dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.'" Christians Are More United This Month Than Ever on Climate Change

COMMENT: "When Protestant churches shall unite with the secular power [climate change movement] to sustain a false religion, for opposing which their ancestors endured the fiercest persecution [reformation], then will the papal sabbath [pope's solution for climate change] be enforced by the combined authority of church and state. There will be a national apostasy, which will end only in national ruin."--Ev 235 (1899).

Gay people to blame for Hurricane Harvey, say evangelical Christian leaders

HIGHLIGHT: (See Title)

COMMENT: "Satan puts his interpretation upon events, and they think, as he would have them, that the calamities which fill the land are a result of Sunday-breaking. Thinking to appease the wrath of God these influential men make laws enforcing Sunday observance."--10MR 239 (1899).

How did we make the leap from the article to Sunday-breaking? Satan is behind the interpretation of the event of Hurricane Harvey. Evangelicals included in the group known as Christian ministers are blaming the immorality as a cause of the natural disaster. This interpretation accepted by these Christian ministers is but training the mind to prepare for the ultimate blame of future events... Sunday-breaking. Also, do be concerned since Trump has an ear out towards Evangelicals.

ISIS's End-of-the-World Problem

HIGHLIGHT: The article connects that Isis is out to take down Rome or the Papacy, take down the United States, and is born out of failed prophecy. The article then connects Seventh-day Adventists in a similar set of events referring to 1844 and our teachings that seem to try and take down Rome spiritually and Protestant America spiritually as well.

COMMENT: "The whole world is to be stirred with enmity against Seventh-day Adventists because they will not yield homage to the papacy by honoring Sunday, the institution of this anti-christian power. It is the purpose of Satan to cause them to be blotted from the earth, in order that his supremacY of the world may not be disputed."-- TM 37 (1893).

How Pope Francis has fundamentally re-shaped the Catholic Church

HIGHLIGHT: (See Title)

If Pope Francis has changed the Catholic Church, how does that match up with:

"And let it be remembered, it is the boast of Rome that she never changes. The principles of Gregory VII. and Innocent III. are still the principles of the Romish Church. And had she but the power, she would put them in practice with as much vigor now as in past centuries. Let the principle once be established in the United States, that the church may employ or control the power of the State;

NEED A RECEIPT?

We will be happy to provide you with a receipt but please indicate that you would like to receive one. Many give without claiming it on their taxes. Personally, I would so as to have more to give. But for us to mail a receipt to those that do not use such would be a waste of God's funds. So do not hesitate to ask, and even if you already gave, we have record of it, so if you still want a receipt, just ask.

that religious observances may be enforced by secular laws; in short, that the authority of church and State is to dominate the conscience, and the triumph of Rome in this country is assured." {GC88 580.3}

Group accuses Pope Francis of heresy

HIGHLIGHT: (See Title)

COMMENT: This attempt has two prominent issues attached. First, if the group were successful in showing that Pope Francis is promoting heresy, then the doctrine that the pope is infallible, which they hold, would then be brought into question.

The second, is that a true heretic is one that teaches doctrines different from Jesus Christ, hence the description of antichrist, "For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist. Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward. Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son." (2 John 1:7-9)

So to trade in one erroneous teaching for another makes both sides true heretics.

October 31, 2017— Death To Protestantism!

October 31 is considered the death of Protestantism because most of the leading Protestant denominations will be signing a document that basically declares the protest is over. This is the final result of the ecumenical movement officially begun under Vatican II in 1965.

Several denominations have already signed, individually, documents that opened up very close relationships, even the exchange of ministers in the pulpit.

December 12, 1994, Evangelicals and Catholics Together, document signed by Catholics and leading Evangelicals.

October 31, 1999, Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification, signed by both Lutherans and Catholics.

January 25, 2007, Common Affirmation document, signed by Catholics, Methodists, and Lutherans.

Leading up to October 31 are some documents that are like prenuptials to a marriage.

February 26, 2014, Tony Palmer, an Anglican, representing the intentions of the Vatican, addressed leading church leaders and declared, "The Protest Is Over!"

At reformingcatholic-confession.com is a document that states:

"Dozens of Protestant theologians have joined together to produce this Reforming Catholic Confession which has already been endorsed by several hundred church leaders. We invite other believers around the world to unite with us in this joyful confession of our common faith."

"THE REFORMING CATHOLIC CONFESSION
WHAT WE,
PROTESTANTS OF DIVERSE CHURCHES AND THEOLOGICAL TRADITIONS, SAY TOGETHER."

Who would sign such a document?

"Dr. John C. Peckham
Assoc. Professor of Theology & Christian Philosophy
Andrews University

ty United States. James A. Ayars Pastor Seventh-day Adventist United States."

And then according to The Guardian, October 29, 2016, "After 500 years of schism, will the rift of the Reformation finally be healed?" The subtitle is, "Pope Francis is beginning a year of events to herald growing cooperation between Protestants and Catholics."

October 3, 2017, Hundreds of Protestant Scholars and Pastors Sign "Reforming Catholic Confession," which states in the article "we mean on a path to Rome". Who signed it? "Andrews University".

SENIOR CLASSES.

JANUARY TO JULY, 1888.

PRICE, 10 CENTS.

PUBLISHED BY THE
INTERNATIONAL S. S. ASSOCIATION.
1888.

- These are not our creation, so we are not in competition with “the church”. They are from the pioneers, and actually available for download on the Internet from the providers of the current Sabbath School lessons.

- We are reprinting in a simple (and I mean simple) manner lesson studies that our pioneers used starting in 1888. They are on 8½ x 11 sheets of paper with no pictures, no cover, no glitz.

Today's quarterlies are filled with infidel authors, as Ellen White would condemn, including psychologists, ministers from Babylonian denominations, known atheists, and even quotes from Catholic monks, in addition to a whole lot of subtle error and apostasy-agenda content.

Each lesson is 6 to 10 pages long with 2 to 3 pages containing the pioneer content and the remainder being Ellen White's Writings. No other interjections by today's humans with agendas.

That's it!

- So far, 23 lessons have been made available.
More to come.
- All lessons are free for download at our website:
FourAngelsMessages.com.
- For ordering by mail, each lesson is $2.00 apiece, including postage.
