

The Four Angels' Messages

IMAGE REMOVED

The prophet here describes a people who, in a time of general departure from truth and righteousness, are seeking to restore the principles that are the foundation of the kingdom of God. They are repairers of a breach that has been made in God's law--the wall that He has placed around His chosen ones for their protection, and obedience to whose precepts of justice, truth, and purity is to be their perpetual safeguard.

Dear Friend,

I am very burdened about every soul, as all of us ought to be. The deceptions are so overwhelming, even when scripture is provided, it is almost impossible to see. Satan has so blinded people from the truth that what many think is truth is actually a lie.

We, as Adventists, believe that the Three Angels' Messages of Revelation 14 are not literal angels. We know, as Elijah Rodgers will bring out in his youth article, that it represents a worldwide series of messages that is delivered through human beings. But for some reason, once the watered down basics are provided in which we simply baptize people who want to attend church on the true Sabbath day, it is then left to God to convict the attendee of further truth.

Now I say watered down because we seem to baptize people still addicted to caffeine, wearing jewelry, treat the Sabbath as a church day, etc. And if anyone tries to inform these new converts of further truth, usually other members, and especially the pastor, tells people to back off because God will take care of it.

So if we believe that God does not bring people into "the truth" without the human effort, why do we think God does not use the human effort after the fact? Basically these people and such pastors are in error.

Now praise the Lord for those few pastors that do it right and that even afterwards handle further truth in the proper manner. Although clubbing people is not God's way, ignoring the responsibility of bringing further truth to people is also not God's way.

But since the majority of churches are ruled by the attitude that God shall take care of things in the church, let us go further. When standard bearers try to call people up to the standard, which seems to offend many, the bearers are reminded, "Wheat and Tares are to grow together until the end!"

The actual verse says,

"Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn" (Matthew 13:30). The word "harvest" and the word "end" are not the same. Other misnomers include the thought that the tares are cast into hell fire; it is assumed that angels will be doing the gathering; and a further assumption is that the barn is Heaven.

First, let us address the tares and being burned. Notice that the tares are not burned but are to eventually be burned, for the verse stated, "to burn them" and not "and burn them". In other words, something is separating the wheat and tares. That something is what will be addressed in a moment, after we address the rest of the misunderstandings.

"The wheat is to be gathered for Christ's garner. The tares have the appearance of wheat, but when the harvest comes they must be rejected. Yet there is an imitation of the wheat through a long period of time. Satan puts forth a determined effort to deceive and lead into strange paths those who have

The mission of The Four Angels' Messages Ministry is to alert as many Seventh-day Adventists as possible to see the need of living the Three Angels' Messages, be well studied in the messages of all four angels, and get ready very soon to go and preach them. It is our belief that not only are we the last generation, but the mark is soon to be forced upon us, and publications like this shall be targeted. So while the presses can run, let us awake to our high calling despite others who want to remain asleep.

your family, church brethren, or friends? This sounds almost unbelievable until we hear Jesus himself tell us in Matthew 10:21-22, “And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.”²² And ye shall others who are close to you still persecute you when you are not threatening them nor doing them any harm. The first “Seventh-day Adventist” parents were also baffled by why their son, Cain, who killed Abel. They were brothers, flesh and blood! How can such a terrible tragedy happen? This same spirit that led Cain to Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.

2 Timothy 3:12

Revelation 12:17 makes it clear that in the last days the remnant people of God who cleave tenaciously to the truth of God’s law and testimonies of Jesus by faith will be attacked relentlessly and aggressively by Satan. Persecution is not an option, it is a fact of life for those who live by and teach the everlasting gospel. 2 Timothy 3:12 says, “Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.” Did you know that your main persecutors will come from be hated of all men for my name’s sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved.” Can you endure? Do you still want to be a remnant soldier for Jesus Christ in these last days? There will be some very trying times during these last days, but God promises to be with you always. He will give you power to endure until the end.

Even though many of the remnant are aware of the persecution as revealed in God’s Word, it still baffles the mind sometimes why kill his brother is the exact same spirit that relatives and church brethren will have to attack and persecute the remnant in the last days.

Remember in our previous article, “The World’s First ‘Seventh-day Adventist’ Brothers” that both Cain and Abel were both taught the law of God, the seventh-day Sabbath and the advent of the Messiah to save the world from sin. They were raised as “Seventh-day Adventists” in its meaning. Over time Cain only wanted the benefits of the testimonies without turning from sin. He only wanted to give a “thank” offering without a sacrifice. He wanted to be a “professor” of truth on his own terms and not God’s. Abel, on the other hand, held on to the truth that was taught to him. He was obedient and gave a perfect sacrifice unto God.

God rejected Cain’s offering, but accepted Abel’s. Even though Abel did not threaten or make any demands on his brother, Cain was wroth and went to make war against Abel, according to Genesis

The reason Cain was wroth with Abel is the same exact reason that Satan is wroth with the remnant in the last days. Cain hated Abel

Him covered by the precious blood of Jesus Christ.

In Genesis 4:6, 7, before Cain plotted against his brother, God, out of compassion, pleaded with Cain to repent and turn from sin as symbolized in the sin sacrifice. What was Cain’s response? In verse 8 it says, “And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him.” First notice that Cain does not respond to God’s plea. It is as if Cain put his hand in

And the LORD said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen? If thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door. And unto thee [shall be] his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

Genesis 4:6-7

like Satan hates the remnant. Abel held on to the law and the testimonies of Jesus. What did Abel do to Cain? Nothing! Abel and the remnant are living sacrifices to God, holy and acceptable to God face and said "I am not listening to you! You are not fair! Why do I need the law and testimonies? Just love me and accept me the way I am. I don't need to change. You NEED to change, God! Just do that, okay, and I will thank you for it."

"Cain talked with Abel his brother." Cain, obviously, like the snake in the garden, came to Abel as a friendly big brother looking for sympathy. Cain, used by Satan, tried to get Abel to join his rebellion. He probably used his credibility and position as the older brother to try to convince Abel.

Abel was a true "Seventh-day Adventist." He loved and held on to the law and the testimonies! He did not compromise one iota of God's TRUTH! Will you, friend?

"So it came to pass" as Cain was trying to deceive Abel to join his rebellion, Abel refused. He probably tried to plead with his brother Cain, "Turn, turn from your sin and live! You are going the wrong way, Cain! Out of love, brother, repent, turn from sin, and you will have eternal life!"

Cain's deceptive friendly cover turned into a face of pure hatred. He again rejected truth! Cain did what Satan wants to do to ALL who ABIDE in the one true church of Christ by keeping the law and the testimonies – he killed Abel! Cain was the first murderer. Abel was the first martyr for the kingdom of God.

After Cain kills his brother in cold blood, God gives Cain another longer farm. The thing he loved more than God, was taken from him. Cain loved the fruit of the ground that grew in his fields. Cain loved it more than the sacrifice that represented the saving grace of Jesus. Now it was gone from him; he had no way to bring it back. What God curses no man can override. Cain had to survive off the land through eating food grown wild. It is also possible that Cain became the world's first person to eat flesh even though God did not permit it.

To show how much rebellion Cain was

And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and slew him.

Genesis 4:8

chance to repent and turn from sin, for in verse 9 it says that God asked Cain a question, "Where is Abel thy brother?" The conviction of the Holy Spirit tugged at Cain's heart, but he lied instead. He totally rejected the Holy Spirit. He was in full-blown rebellion and his hard heart was never soft again. The rest of Cain's life revealed that he no longer had the conscience or sensitivity to the Holy Spirit.

What Cain was trained and loved to do, God cursed. Cain could no in and how much he rejected truth, he still did not afflict his soul and plead for forgiveness after he received his punishment from God. As a matter of fact, he complained! In verse 13 he says, "My punishment is greater than I can bear."

Why was Cain's heart so hard? Here is a very valuable lesson for all of us. "With every rejection of truth the minds of the people will become darker, their hearts more stubborn, until they are entrenched in an infidel hardihood." Ellen G. White, The Great Controversy, p.603. Cain received a "mark" from God as a monument of his rebellious heart. The same will be true for all who reject the law and the testimonies in the last days. As a monument of their rebellion and rejection of true worship, they will receive the "mark of the beast". As a result of Cain's rebellion, his seed rejected the law and the testimonies! Cain's posterity was a rebellious people who was eventually destroyed by the world flood.

Even though Abel's death was heart-wrenching to his parents, his death was not in vain. It was a seed and memorial, for his posterity and the remnant people of God in the last days. Who was Abel's replacement? Genesis 4:25 says, "And Adam knew his wife again; and she bare a son, and called his name Seth: For God, said she, hath appointed me another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain slew." Cain's seed represents a rebellious church that rejects the law and the testimonies. Seth's seed represents God's one true church of Christ that embraces the law and the testimonies.

Why did Cain kill Abel? He rejected the truth and hated the light. Cain wanted to still be comfortable in his rebellion and sin. Abel's example continually exposed Cain's rebellion and evil deeds. Jesus says in John 3:19, 20, "And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved."

As we get closer to the end and as you hold on to the truth, you will see some of your church brethren, and maybe your flesh and blood turn on you like Cain. Don't be shocked! There are some now who are weary and wavering

Seventh-day Adventists, but you hold on to the everlasting gospel. "Because iniquity abounds, the love of many waxes cold. There are many who have outgrown their advent faith. They are living for the world, and while saying in their hearts, as they

A terrible condition of the religious world is here described. With every rejection of truth the minds of the people will become darker, their hearts more stubborn, until they are entrenched in an infidel hardihood. In defiance of the warnings which God has given, they will continue to trample upon one of the precepts of the Decalogue, until they are led to persecute those who hold it sacred. Christ is set at nought in the contempt placed upon His word and His people. As the teachings of spiritualism are accepted by the churches, the restraint imposed upon the carnal heart is removed, and the profession of religion will become a cloak to conceal the basest iniquity.

desire it shall be, 'My Lord delayeth His coming', they have beaten their fellow servants. They do this for the same reason that Cain killed Abel."

Ellen G White, Manuscript Releases Volume 14, p. 115

White continues this thought in The Great Controversy, p. 608, "As the storm approaches, a large class who have professed faith in the third angel's message, but have not been sanctified through obedience to the truth, abandon their position and join the ranks of the opposition. By uniting with the world and partaking of its spirit, they have come to view matters in nearly the same light; and when the test is brought, they are prepared to choose the easy, popular side. Men of talent and pleasing address, Sabbathkeepers are brought before the courts to answer for their faith, these apostates are the most efficient agents of Satan to misrepresent and accuse them, and by false reports and insinuations to stir up the rulers against them."

Do you still want to be enlisted with the remnant soldiers of Jesus Christ? You will be betrayed, attacked, and some of you killed like Abel, but in the end God has a crown and everlasting life for you. Stay faithful. 📖

[In our next article we will continue to look at the "Seventh-Day Adventist" movement in the old testament from the time of the world-wide flood and learn some valuable lessons that we must apply to our lives today. God bless.]

As the storm approaches, a large class who have professed faith in the third angel's message, but have not been sanctified through obedience to the truth, abandon their position and join the ranks of the opposition. By uniting with the world and partaking of its spirit, they have come to view matters in nearly the same light; and when the test is brought, they are prepared to choose the easy, popular side. Men of talent and pleasing address, who once rejoiced in the truth, employ their powers to deceive and mislead souls. They become the most bitter enemies of their former brethren.

This problem of misinterpreting the Spirit of Prophecy (SOP) is due to reading the SOP in compilations that denominational leaders have put together for you to interpret the way that they desire to interpret Sister White's writings. This is why it is so important to read her writings from its original source and to read the Testimonies for the Church Vol. 1-9 instead of reading com-pilations put together by denominational leaders. This is of utmost of importance considering the fact that at the last General Conference session, it was voted that the SOP can no longer define doctrine, nor is it au-

SOP in the Sabbath School Lesson, sermons, or in our Adventist schools? The SOP was made of none effect through the apostasy of publishing the book Great Hope in 2015 when many were thinking they were giving money to a just cause only to be de-

Many have read the following quotation and have been misled or deceived by denominational leaders. Notice the following: "The church may appear as about to fall, but it does not fall. It remains, while the sinners in Zion will be sifted out – the chaff separated from the precious wheat. This is a terrible ordeal, but nevertheless it must take place."-- 2SM 380 (1886). {LDE 180.5} Many have read this quote believing that the sinners within the denomination will be removed and that the denomination will not fall. In order to understand this quote correctly we must under-was saying it appeared that the people of God would not make it, but by the grace of God they would. Such hope for you and me as we prepare for the second coming of Jesus.

And in preparation of His coming we as a people are in great need of more self-supporting churches, self-supporting ministries, and self-supporting workers that are separate and distinct from the denomination due to the prevailing sin and apostasies that surround us. This is how the work will be finished. Notice the following from the SOP: "I saw that God has honest children among the nominal Adventists and the fallen churches, and before the plagues shall be poured out, ministers and people will be called out from these churches and will gladly receive the truth. Satan knows this; and before the loud cry of the third angel is given, he raises an excitement in these religious bodies, that those who have rejected the truth may think that God is with them. He hopes to deceive the Bible a woman is a church according to Isaiah 54:5,6 and 2 Cor. 11:2. They are not defiled with sins such as the LGBT movement that is being perpetuated in the churches today. Lev. 18:22-28 says,

To those who are indifferent at this time Christ's warning is: "Because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spew thee out of My mouth." Revelation 3:16. The figure of spewing out of His mouth means that He cannot offer up your prayers or your expressions of love to God. He cannot endorse your teaching of His word or your spiritual work in anywise. He cannot present your religious exercises with the request that grace be given you.

Testimonies for the Church Volume Six, page 408.2

"Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination. Neither shalt thou lie with any beast to defile thyself therewith: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto: it is confusion. Defile not ye yourselves in any of these things: for in all these the nations are defiled which I cast the honest and lead them to think that God is still working for the churches. But the light will shine, and all who are honest will leave the fallen churches, and take their stand with the remnant." {EW 261.1} Revelation 14:4 makes it clear that the 144,000 are "not defiled with women". In stranger that sojourneth among you: (For all these abominations have the men of the land done, which were before you, and the land is defiled;) That the land spue not you out also, when ye defile it, as it spued out the nations that were before you." that He cannot offer up your prayers or your expressions of love to God. He cannot endorse your teaching of His word or your spiritual work in anywise. He cannot present your religious exercises with the request that grace be given you." 6t 408.

Can you imagine worshiping in a place where God doesn't accept the worship? This is what is happening in many SDA churches across the country every Sabbath. The churches have become defiled due to the LGBT community being allowed to become baptized members of the denomination and serve in church leadership. This places the churches in a condition where God can NOT use them and He "spews them out", meaning he rejects them. God will use consecrated workers in self-supporting lines to carry forward His work at this time. Will you be a part of His 144,000 that are not defiled with women? 📖

Everyone needs to know the three angels' messages, even young people. Why? Because it is a message of love from Jesus that gives us a warning about events that will happen in the last days so that we can be prepared for them. So what are the three angels' messages? The three angels' messages that are to go to all the world are found in Revelation 14:6-12. Let's look at the first angel's message in verses 6 and 7.

Revelation 14:6 says, "And I saw another angel fly in the midst of can be seen and heard by all." This means that the everlasting gospel will go to all the world, "to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people." These messengers have the everlasting gospel

And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

Revelation 14:6-7

heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people." Who does the angel represent? Angel means a messenger. So the angel flying in the midst of heaven represents God's messenger. Why is the angel in the midst of heaven? In Thayer Definition midst of heaven means "...where what is done and they preach it to the world. The message of the everlasting gospel is given in verse 7, "Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters." What does it mean to fear God and give glory to Him? Fear here does not mean to be afraid or scared, it means that we are to respect God. By seeing God's perfect loving character it should lead us to want to serve Him and we should not want to disobey Him. We glorify God by worshipping Him. We are to reverence and worship God who made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters because He is Supreme Creator and ruler of the universe.

Revelation 14:7 says "the hour of his judgment is come." The everlasting gospel reveals that Jesus offers a way of salvation to all. The judgment is the final trial of both the dead and living which will determine if you will receive His gift of everlasting life, or punishment of everlasting death. Revelation 14:7 reveals that judgment has begun. Who is the judge? John 5:22 "For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son." Jesus is the judge, and Jesus does not judge "...according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment." John 7:24.

So what is this judgment? Ecclesiastes 12:14 says, "For God shall bring every work (everything done) into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil."

Who will be judged? 2 Corinthians 5:10 says, "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done,

For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether [it be] good, or whether [it be] evil.

Ecclesiastes 12:14

whether it be good or bad." We all will appear before the judgment seat of Christ. But does it mean that we will literally stand before the judgment seat? NO. We will not literally stand before the judgment seat. When it says that "we all will appear before the judgment seat of Christ" it means that all of our names will go before Jesus in the judgment.

All judgment has a standard and the Bible reveals that God's ten commandments are the standard of Jesus' judgment. James 2:12 says, "So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty." And Romans 2:12 says, "...as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law;" which reveals we will all be judged by the law of liberty.

So how can we stand in the judgment? Romans 14:4 says, "Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand."

Hebrews 13:20, 21 says, "Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is wellpleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen." So to be able to stand, Jesus has to work in us so we can keep his commandments. 📖 off the formation of free radicals known to cause cancer.

Lemons are known for their sour taste, essential scents, and even decorative dishes. But, there are greater benefits to this delicious fruit than many know. Drinking a half cup of lemon juice daily, can protect the kidneys against calcium stones, support weight loss, lower your risk for can-lemons help to cleanse the liver and boost the immune system. Both are essential in order to prevent major diseases such as cancer and even small illnesses like colds. Keeping the body cleansed inside and out will not only benefit the inside but also the outside. The vitamin C in lemons help to diminish wrinkles, stretch marks, blemishes, reduce the appearance of scars, and can be added to cuts and scrapes as a natural antibacterial to help prevent infection and promote faster healing.

Also, adding lemon to warm water first thing in the morning not only aids in digestion, but also hydrates the lymph system. But, there's not only benefits to the juice of a lemon, the peel itself contains (at the max) 10% more vitamins than the juice! Citrus limonum, known as the "lemon peel", can increase bone health, lower cholesterol, and even prevent gum disease. To receive the health benefits from lemon and lemon zest, it's best to use it daily. For daily benefits, squeeze one fresh lemon in your water and brush your teeth with coconut oil and lemon zest.

Authorized KJV vs Catholic Bible

Jerry O'Donnell

- Author of What Does It Mean For the World To Have One Mind?
- Bible Worker, Evangelist, Pastor, Church Planter

Not all Bibles are created equally. There are two Bible versions in the world. One has many flavors. What we call the "modern versions" actually are manuscripts that the Vatican has released. In fact, on purpose, there is the blatant Catholic version with 11 additional books that Protestants reject, but that does not negate the fact that the manuscripts for the other versions still have Catholic influence.

Do we not realize that "the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed" (Revelation 12:17)? Would you put it past the dragon, Satan, to encourage Bible reading as long as it is misleading? In fact, Satan is only wroth with the woman, the church, but leaves her alone. He goes after the remnant of her seed. He cringes at the fact that Jesus is still worshiped, but delights that the participants are being lied to. So he is fine with that while he goes after the standard bearers.

Now the claim is that the modern versions are using the older manuscripts. That may be true, but realize this, that none of the versions, including the KJV, can trace back to the original manuscripts; they have all been lost. So what we really have is a supposed copy from the originals. Now, which would you trust? Would you trust one of two chains of copying dating back close to the original being the oldest manuscripts, one found in a trash can, but both released from the Vatican? Or would you trust a number of copies in multiple languages in the hundreds, that when they are all brought back together they all speak the same thing? The latter is what is the basis for the KJV. The prior is what makes the Catholic version and all other versions.

To bolster the favoritism of the "modern versions", whenever people say that the "modern versions" leave out stuff as compared to the KJV, they fire back with the statement, "Well, that's because it is not in the original manuscripts." Once again, no one has the very original. Secondly, they may be right regarding the source they are using, but who is the ultimate source? The Vatican. Do we not realize that to trust in such an argument is actually working for the beast power? What we have is that the Jesuits were successful in getting multiple erroneous Bible versions into the hands of so many Protestants to undo the true protesting version. Then the Jesuits infiltrated the denominations, including our own, and encouraged such usage, so much so that even our own denomination will be joining others on October 31, 2017 to sign a document undoing the protest. That is not conspiracy theory, either. That is in their oath that such activity of infiltrating would be done.

So each month what we are going to do is show a significant change or agenda behind the "modern versions", or should we say the "ecumenical" versions, for that is exactly what they have been created to be.

What Sabbath School Lesson Are You Using?

- Does it make sense to use material from those that are in apostasy?
- Does it make sense to be reading from quoted infidel authors in which Ellen White Condemns?
- Does it make sense to call the papacy "Antichrist" and then quote from their ministers?
- Do you even question the use of Bible versions other than KJV?
- Have you been able to detect the liberal agenda that Ellen White condemned?
- Have you been able to detect the undermining of the faith with unanswered questions that puts doubt in the faith, also a caution that Ellen White Speaks of?

who are in Christ Jesus.

Holman Christian

Standard Bible: Therefore, no condemnation now exists for those in Christ Jesus,

NET Bible: There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

New Heart English Bible: There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus.

International Standard Version: Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in union with the Messiah Jesus.

GOD'S WORD® Translation: So those who are believers in Christ Jesus can no longer be condemned.

New American Standard 1977: There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

American Standard Version: There is therefore now no condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus.

English Revised Version: There is therefore now no condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus.

Weymouth New Testament: There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus;

So according to these versions as long as you are Christian, you are not condemned, but being Christian does not mean you have to give up fleshly lusts nor seek a spiritual relationship. Most believe in once saved, always saved. Most believe in justification only, and sanctification happens at the second coming. The KJV tells us that we are to give up the fleshly lusts and seek the spiritual relationship, or sanctification, now.

Aramaic Bible in Plain

English: There is therefore no condemnation to those in Yeshua The Messiah who do not walk in the flesh.

Douay-Rheims Bible: THERE is now therefore no condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus, who walk not according to the flesh.

So as long as a person rejects the fleshly desires, but does not to have a spiritual or godly life, there is no condemnation? The Holy Spirit's job is to "guide you into all truth" (John 16:13), but that is not conducive to the ecumenical movement. Everyone is allowed to believe what they want, which is not taught in the KJV.

Below are Bible versions that got it right this time.

Jubilee Bible 2000: So that now, there is no condemnation to those who are in Christ, Jesus, who walk not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.

Webster's Bible Translation: There is therefore now no condemnation to them who are in Christ Jesus, who walk not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.

World English Bible: There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who don't walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.

Young's Literal Translation: There is, then, now no condemnation to those in Christ Jesus, who walk not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit;

So, are you living in a false hope relying upon what Jesus did at the cross, which Evangelicals teach that everyone was saved at the cross, or will you continue the protest and take the KJV in hand and teach that there is more to salvation than simply believing in Jesus?

What Are the Four Angels' Messages?

Jerry O'Donnell

- Author of What Does It Mean For the World To Have One Mind?
- Bible Worker, Evangelist, Pastor, Church Planter

Despite the introduction in January explaining why this is the Four Angels' Messages Ministry and answering in May a question on the subject, believe it or not, people are still asking questions, which is good. It shows that people do care, are concerned about false theology, and probably a few other good reasons.

As Seventh-day Adventists, all of us have probably heard of the Three Angels' Messages. It would be a sad case if we have not. I would then have to ask the same question Paul asked, "What then were ye baptized?" (Acts 19:3). So with that assumption, we take the three angels of Revelation 14 and add onto it the fourth one found in Revelation 18, which is not yet sounding, and we end up with four angels having messages. The sounding of the fourth angel is not until after Sunday law enters the picture, but as a reminder, and as we see more and more freedoms, especially in speech, being restricted or labeled with the term "fake news", publications like this will probably be forbidden during that time, or close to it. Therefore, it is our desire to solidify as many as possible in the Three Angels' Messages and prepare as many as possible for the sounding of the fourth one, as we are very likely the last generation on earth. Only the "four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree" (Revelation 7:1) keeps us where we are in time, but when they let loose, we will not have a whole lot of learning time.

Now, not to take away from our eleven year old evangelist who is addressing the individual angels, this article is going to provide surface content of all four messages. We will allow Elijah Rogers to provide the rest of the details in his series of articles.

Angel #1

Revelation 14:6-7 says, "And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters."

"In like manner, Miller and his associates fulfilled prophecy, and gave a message which inspiration had foretold should be given to the world, but which they could not have given had they fully understood the prophecies pointing out their disappointment, and presenting another message to be preached to all nations before the Lord should come. The first and second angels' messages were given at the right time, and accomplished the work which God designed to accomplish by them." {The Great Controversy (1888), page 405.2}

As we see, this first angel, as well as the second, were given prior to and including 1844, as we shall see later, which will also show that all three angels' messages are to be given from 1844 onward. As for now, let us break each message down a bit.

What does the first angel have? The everlasting gospel. This is the same gospel that Jesus said, "And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come" (Matthew 24:14). So in the last days, not any gospel will do. It has to contain the messages of Revelation 14. If it does not, it is not the whole truth and we ought not participate with any other denomination, even if what they teach is correct. What is wrong is the fact that they are only giving part of the message. Of course, the rest of what they teach is wrong — infant baptism, Sunday worship, immediate life after death, etc.

This is stated because as Adventists, we are accused of being legalists. Do not take that as an acceptable argument. Noah preached the gospel in his day tongue, and people" and "preach" it. "Preach" includes living it, but it does not include acting it out either in plays and skits, nor with drums and percussion instruments. It also does not include making the messages more palatable.

Now the message is actually multifaceted. "Fear God" is defined as "The fear of the LORD [is] to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth" (Proverbs 8:13). If one blemish is found upon us (2 Peter 3:14, Ephesians 5:27), we are not ready to give the message. Do you just tolerate evil or hate evil? Are you put out

The fear of the LORD [is] to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate.

Proverbs 8:13

but also told people to get into the boat (grace plus action). Likewise, we have the gospel and we are telling people to sanctify themselves, by the divine power of Jesus Christ, to be ready for the second coming.

Please note that it is our responsibility in one form or another to take this gospel to "them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and because you are not recognized for what work you do, or do you just do the work because your master is God? Do you think you are fine as you are, or do you walk each day in the spirit of repentance (Matthew 9:13)? Do you allow certain ungodly ways while overly condemning others, or do you condemn all evil ways despite people calling you judgmental? Is everything that comes out of your mouth appropriate?

Next, are you giving God all the glory?

"Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and [that] the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which [temple] ye are" (1 Corinthians 3:16-17). So are you striving to eat and drink most appropriately or do you have the attitude in any area that states, "What does it matter if I indulge or not?" Are you living the health message or are you breaking the rules so as to enjoy more of the world? Are we taking the example of Daniel who not only had a restrictive diet but also survived physical Babylon? Just when do we think it will be time "that it is no longer safe to use milk, cream, butter, and eggs, God will reveal this" {Manuscript Releases Volume Twelve, page 178.1}?

And giving God all the glory is also Christ's Righteousness shining through us. We give Satan the glory when we allow sin in our lives, while we give God the glory when we only allow His Righteousness to flow through us.

The "judgment hour" includes knowing and believing in Christ's ministry in the heavenly sanctuary. If we struggle at knowing Daniel

And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.

Daniel 8:14

8:14, the 2,300 day (year) prophecy along with the 70 weeks of Daniel 9, it is then high time we "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth" (2 Timothy 2:15). Distancing ourselves from the investigative judgment is the wrong direction. We need to embrace the unique message that sets us apart from all denominations because technically, we are not just another denomination. We are a movement continuing the protest but on a journey that is our "high calling of God in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 3:14).

To "worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters" is a quote out of the fourth commandment, which is a call to proper Sabbath keeping, but we need to "turn away thy foot from the sabbath, [from] doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the LORD, honourable; and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking [thine own] words" (Isaiah 58:13).

Angel #2

Revelation 14:8 says, "And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication."

As quoted earlier, the first and second angel's messages were delivered prior to and including 1844 but have been spoken again since 1844.

"'Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city.' That message was first proclaimed by the servants of God in the summer of 1844."

{Testimonies For The Church Volume One, page 53.3}

However, the right attitude is definitely needing uncovered here.

"They should make them acquainted with the great pillars of our faith, the reasons why we are Seventh-day Adventists,--why we are called, as were the children of Israel, to be a peculiar people, a holy nation, separate and distinct from all other people on the face of the earth" {Testimonies for the Church Volume Five, page 330.2}.

Did you catch it? True Seventh-day Adventists are Israel. The Lutheran, Methodist, Baptist, or anyone else in another denomination living up to all the light they have are not Israel. Yes, they may be saved just like Rahab was saved by faith who was of Jericho, a non-Israelite; just as Ruth was saved who was a Moabite, a non-Israelite; etc. So why would Israel be seeking advice, accreditation, making contracts with those outside of the faith? Why are we allowing our sons and daughters to marry Babylonians? Although they may have some truth, we can learn nothing from them. This is a lack of trust in God. If God were to see fit that we need to know something that we lack, He is not going to use a Babylonian to teach us. And so clearly stated, Babylon are all the apostate Protestant churches.

Our church (the denomination) is in great

For they [are] not all Israel, which are of Israel.

Romans 9:6

apostasy, incorporating Babylonian teachings and learning their ways. She can only be in apostasy because she was given the truth and is departing from it. Babylon was never given the truth; they just live in error.

"The term Babylon, derived from Babel, and signifying confusion, is applied in Scripture to the various forms of false or apostate religion. But the message announcing the fall of Babylon must apply to some religious body that was once pure, and has become corrupt. It cannot be the Romish Church which is here meant; for that church has been in a fallen condition for many centuries. But how appropriate the figure as applied to the Protestant churches, all professing to derive their doctrines from the Bible, yet divided into almost innumerable sects. The unity for which Christ prayed does not exist. Instead of one Lord, one faith, one baptism, there are numberless conflicting creeds and theories. Religious faith appears so confused and discordant that the world know not what to believe as truth. God is not in all this; it is the work of man,--the work of Satan." {The Spirit of Prophecy Volume Four, page 232.2}

Until we make that separation and stop trying to befriend other denominations, we cannot deliver the second angel's message. I say "we" in that "we" have to stop waiting for our denomination to come around to this realization and just think right and do right despite the denomination.

That great city, Rome, has been pulling the strings by infiltrating the other denominations through the Jesuit order. She has been spreading her false doctrines throughout the world. If we are not firm upon the true doctrines, then it will be said, "Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son" (2 John 1:9). This is not conspiracy thinking, either.

"When appearing as members of their order, they wore a garb of sanctity, visiting prisons and hospitals, ministering to the sick and the poor, professing to have renounced the world, and bearing the sacred name of Jesus, who went about doing good. But under this blameless exterior the most criminal and deadly purposes were concealed. It was a fundamental principle of the order that the end justifies the means. By this code, lying, theft, perjury, assassination, were not only pardonable but commendable, when they served the interests of the church. Under various disguises the Jesuits worked their way into offices of State, climbing up to be the counselors of kings, and shaping the policy of nations. They became servants, to act as spies upon their masters. They established colleges for the sons of princes and nobles, and schools for the common people; and the children of Protestant parents were drawn into an observance of popish rites. All the outward pomp and display of the Romish worship was brought to bear to confuse the mind, and dazzle and captivate the imagination; and thus the liberty for which the fathers had toiled and bled was betrayed by the sons. The Jesuits rapidly spread themselves over Europe, and wherever they went, there followed a revival of popery." {The Great Controversy (1888), page 234.3}

Revelation 14:9-12 says, "And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive [his] mark they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus."

"The first and second messages were given in 1843 and 1844, and we are now under the proclamation of the third; but all three of the messages are still to be proclaimed. It is just as essential now as ever before that they shall be repeated to those who are seeking for the truth. By pen and voice we are to sound the proclamation, showing their order, and the application of the prophecies that bring us to the third angel's message.

There cannot be a third without the first and second. These messages we are to give to the world in publications, in discourses, showing in the line of prophetic history the things that have been and the things that will be." {Selected Messages Book 2, page 104.3}

So the third angel's messages include the first and the second. Therefore, now is the time to be giving the Three Angels' Messages!

We know who the anti-christ beast is – the Vatican; we know who the image of the beast is – the United States; and we know what the Mark of the Beast is – Sunday law; or at least we ought to. In the spirit of ecumenicalism, calling it like it ought to be called has not been as clear as it should be. Dwight Nelson suggesting that the beast could refer to Islam is appalling [Mentioned in a sermon in 2011 as well as 2016]. Ted Wilson stating that the Mark is any day but Sabbath is appalling [Address given at an ASI convention]. If we cannot label things appropriately, no matter how offensive it may appear, we are in trouble. Despite the political correctness in the world, this is a saving message. Saving messages are not always pleasant to hear. We cannot be looking for ways to present it nicer. If anything, ...

"In this fearful time, just before Christ is to come the second time, God's faithful preachers will have to bear a still more pointed testimony than was borne by John the Baptist. A responsible, important work is before them; and those who speak smooth things, God will not acknowledge as his shepherds. A fearful woe is upon them" {Gospel Workers (1892), page 90.1}.

"Every church needs a clear, sharp testimony, giving the trumpet a certain sound."--Signs of the Times, Oct. 2, 1907.

Do we really want our fellow human beings facing the wrath of God, the seven last plagues (Revelation 15:1), poured out with the mixture of God's grace? Do we really want our fellow human beings facing hell fire to burn "in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb" (Revelation 14:10), where "there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth" (Matthew 13:42)?

Now if anyone tells you that you cannot be perfect, tell them that they must not believe in the power of God to "keep you from falling" (Jude 1:24) and that God must be a liar, for at some point God is going to be able to point, like Job who represents the righteous at the end of time, "Here is the patience of the saints:

here [are] they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus" (Revelation 14:12). I personally have so much faith in Jesus to empower me to keep the commandments that I want God to be able to point to me at some point and say, "Hast thou considered my servant that [there is] none like him [or her] in the earth, a perfect and an upright man [or woman], one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?" Do you not want that said of you?

Angel #4

Revelation 18:1-5 says, "And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory. And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird. For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies. And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities."

"We have been looking many years for a Sunday law to be enacted in our land; and now that the movement is right upon us, we ask, What are our people going to do in the matter? Do you realize that the night will soon come, when no man can work? Have you that intensity of zeal, that piety and devotion, which will enable you to stand when opposition is brought upon you? . . . We should specially er angel ascending from the east, cried to them, saying, 'Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads.' This points out the work we now have to do, which is to cry to God for the angels to hold the four winds until missionaries shall be sent to all parts of the world, and shall have proclaimed the warning against disobeying the law of Jehovah." {The Home Missionary, August 1, 1889 par. 2}

"I saw angels hurrying to and fro in heaven, descending to the earth, and again ascending to heaven, preparing for the fulfillment of some important event. Then I saw another seek God for grace and power to be given to his people now. God lives; and we do not believe that the time has fully come when he would have our liberties restricted. The prophet saw 'four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.' Another mighty angel commissioned to descend to the earth, to unite his voice with the third angel, and give power and force to his message. Great power and glory were imparted to the angel, and as he descended, the earth was lightened with his glory. The light which attended this angel penetrated everywhere, as he cried mightily, with a strong voice, 'Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.' The message of the fall of Babylon, as given by the second angel, is repeated, with the additional mention of the corruptions which have been entering the churches since 1844. The work of this angel comes in at the right time to join in the last great work of the third angel's message as it swells to a loud cry. And the people of God are thus prepared to stand in the hour of temptation, which they are soon to meet. I saw a great light resting upon them, and they united to fearlessly proclaim the third angel's message."

"Angels were sent to aid the mighty angel from heaven, and I heard voices which seemed to sound everywhere, 'Come out of her, My people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.' This message seemed to be an addition to the third message, joining it as the midnight cry joined the second angel's message in 1844. The glory of God rested upon the patient, waiting saints, and they fearlessly gave the last solemn warning, proclaiming the fall of Babylon and calling upon God's people to come out of her that they might escape her fearful doom."

"The light that was shed upon the waiting ones penetrated everywhere, and those in the churches who had any light, who had not heard and rejected the three messages, obeyed the call and left the fallen churches. Many had come to years of accountability since these messages had been given, and the light shone upon them, and they were privileged to choose life or death. Some chose life and took their stand with those who were looking for their Lord and keeping all His commandments. The third mes-

Spirit of God upon them. The last call was carried even to the poor slaves, and the pious among them poured forth their songs of rapturous joy at the prospect of their happy deliverance. Their masters could not check them; fear and astonishment kept them silent. Mighty miracles were wrought, the sick were healed, and signs and wonders followed the believers. God was in the work, and every saint, fearless of consequences, followed the convictions of his own conscience and united with those who were keeping all the commandments of God; and with power they sounded abroad the third message. I saw that this message will close with power and strength far exceeding the midnight cry."

"Servants of God, endowed with power from on high with their faces lighted up, and shining with holy consecration, went forth to proclaim the message from heaven. Souls that were scattered all through the religious bodies answered to the call, and the precious were hurried out of the doomed churches, as Lot was hurried out of Sodom before her destruction. God's people were strengthened by the excellent glory which rested upon them in rich abundance and prepared them to endure the hour of temptation. I heard everywhere a multitude of voices saying, 'Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.'" {Early Writings, pages 277-278}

"Every truly converted soul will be intensely desirous to bring others from the darkness of error into the marvelous light of the righteousness of Jesus Christ. The great outpouring of the Spirit of God, which lightens the whole earth with his glory, will not come until we have an enlightened people, that know by experience what it means to be laborers together with an excuse for their indifference that they will be able to present to God in the great day of final reckoning. There will be no reason to offer as to why they did God. When we have entire, whole-hearted consecration to the service of Christ, God will recognize the fact by an outpouring of his Spirit without measure; but this will not be while the largest portion of the church are not laborers together with God. God cannot pour out his Spirit when selfishness and self-indulgence are so manifest; when a spirit prevails that, if put into words, would express that answer of Cain,--'Am I my brother's keeper?' And this is why this publication is called the Four Angels' Messages. We are to be active now, despite everyone else holding claim to the name Seventh-day Adventist. They, including leadership, are no different than the "mixed multitude" (Exodus 12:38), which are active and godly believers mixed with those that are mere church-playing people going through the motions or church formality, but not being sanctified by the message; and the leadership as being like "Korah, ... Dathan and Abiram, ... On" (Numbers 16:1) and "two hundred and fifty princes of the assembly, famous in the congregation, men of renown" (Numbers 16:2). And we have many famous men, men of renown today having a great influence against the true messages of these angels. Dwight Nelson and Ted Wilson are but two examples. Sure, we can point to the good, but even the devil uses good to further the influence.

But as you see, we need to be actively giving the Three Angels' Messages and having our hearts prepared today to receive the power of the Holy Spirit under the Fourth Angel. We will not be able to say in that day, "Oh, Sunday law is finally here. Let's get prepared to give the message of Revelation 18!"

So, will you make an effort today if you have not already done so study, accept, live, and teach the messages of the three angels and get ready for the fourth one? 📖

Questions And Answers

QUESTION: Is the fourth angel in Revelation 18 going to delete Babylon's confusion so that it is no more at all? Revelation 18:21 says, "Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all."

ANSWER: Unfortunately, not. But evidently it will have more strength in the message because even though it sounds the same as the second angel of Revelation 14, it is not identical. Revelation 18 gives strength to Revelation 14 and here is why. Revelation 14:8 says, "Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication", while Revelation 18:2 says, "Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird." Revelation 14 is the building up of the influence of that "great city" or Rome or Vatican specifically while Revelation 18 seems to be completion of the influence. Even right now she is trying to gather in every form of devil worship (including Sunday keepers), foul spirit or spiritual falsehoods, and even every unclean and hateful bird.

But how do we know that Revelation 18 does not end the confusion? Because Babylon rules the minds well into the sixth plague until the river Euphrates dries up (Revelation 16:12). As the river was the physical life line to literal Babylon, the river here involving water is said by the Bible, "The waters which thou sawest, ... are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues" (Revelation 17:15). So it is not until the sixth plague that the followers realize they were duped. Unfortunately, it will be too late as every case is decided by the time of the first plague when, "no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled" (Revelation 15:8).

Now regarding the reference in Revelation 18:21, we need to read Revelation 18:8 first, which says, "Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong [is] the Lord God who judgeth her." So that is in reference to the seven last plagues in which one day is equivalent to one year, therefore, in no more than a year's time the plagues, or specifically her plagues, shall utterly destroy her, not the fourth angel's message.

And remember that when the first plague falls, since every case will be already decided, the messengers will be making their way well into the mountains.

QUESTION: Can [or will] God give everyone a vivid view of salvation so they can have a fair chance to choose life or death?

ANSWER: If you are asking if everyone will have the opportunity to see the evidence, weigh the evidence without any distracting influences, and be able come to the conclusion of either for or against the true path of salvation equally weighing the evidence for and against, the answer is that such will never happen because of people's hearts. The closest that such will happen is when the church is purified; the 144,000 go forth living and preaching the last day message; there will then be the ability to say, "Here is the patience of the saints: here [are] they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus" (Revelation 14:12) and possibly join. Until then, people do not have time; believe they are fine as they are; believe that as long as they believe in God (not necessarily Jesus) that it is all the same; that despite evidence that the Big Bang theory is a hoax they rather choose false science over the Bible; etc. People have been well educated in the untruths that light cannot penetrate and it just continues to get worse and worse. Additionally, selfishness gets in the way for even today it is easy to present the vivid picture of salvation and yet hardly a person is interested in it. So it is not the lack of the ability to convey a fair presentation of the message, it is the soil that the presentation is being planted in that is the problem.

Even under the Mark of the Beast, we know that the message will be so clear that it will irk people to turn and want to kill the message givers. And in many cases, they will have the heart of Cain instead of Abel.

Up until the enforcement of the Mark of the Beast, "the times of this ignorance God winked at" (Acts 17:30), but afterwards, God is no longer going to wink. Somehow there is going to be stark difference between the true Sabbath and the spurious one.

"As foretold in the eighteenth of Revelation, the third angel's message is to be proclaimed with great power by those who give the final warning against the beast and his image: 'I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory. And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird. For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies. And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, My people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.' Revelation 18:1-6."

"This is the message given by God to be sounded forth in the loud cry of the third angel."

"Those whose faith and zeal are proportionate to their knowledge of the truth will reveal their loyalty to God by communicating the truth, in all its saving, sanctifying power, to those with whom they associate. Their lives of holiness and unselfish service will be in conformity with the vital principles of the kingdom of heaven." {Testimonies for the Church Volume Eight, page 118}

QUESTION: I would be glad to sell my old trailer and put it into the Lord's work, but where would I live? Rent is too expensive and would cut into the ministry.

ANSWER: God would not want us homeless at this time and especially not be affecting ministry work nor creating an unnecessary stress to wonder about living expenses. Below is an impressive quote. Since God will impress us when to sell and would impress exactly how much to sell it for, I would have faith in the fact that God would also settle the "where to live" part as well. My guess is that we are getting close to such a time but we are not there quite yet, however, any extra lands and homes ought to be considered something to turn into cash and put towards the Lord's work, as well as collections (cards, stamps, etc.), investments, etc.

"Houses and lands will be of no use to the saints in the time of trouble, for they will then have to flee before infuriated mobs, and at that time their possessions cannot be disposed of to advance the cause of present truth. I was shown that it is the will of God that the saints should cut loose from every encumbrance before the time of trouble comes, and make a covenant with God through sacrifice. If they have their property on the altar and earnestly inquire of God for duty, He will teach them when to dispose of these things. Then they will be free in the time of trouble and have no clogs to weigh them down."

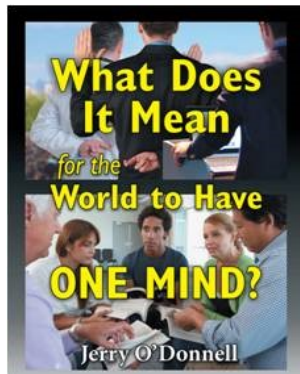

"I saw that if any held on to their property and did not inquire of the Lord as to their duty, He would not make duty known, and they would be permitted to keep their property, and in the time of trouble it would come up before them like a mountain to crush them, and they would try to dispose of it, but would not be able. I heard some mourn like this: "The cause was languishing, God's people were starving for the truth, and we made no effort to supply the lack; now our property is useless. Oh, that we had let it go, and laid up treasure in heaven!" I saw that a sacrifice did not increase, but it decreased and was consumed. I also saw that God had not required all of His people to dispose of their property at the same time; but if they desired to be taught, He would teach them, in a time of need, when to sell and how much to sell. Some have been required to dispose of their property in times past to sustain the Advent cause, while others have been permitted to keep theirs until a time of need. Then, as the cause needs it, their duty is to sell." {Early Writings, pgs 56-57} 📖

What is "brain hacking"?
Tech insiders on why you should care

HIGHLIGHT: Silicon Valley is engineering your phone, apps and social media to get you hooked, says a former Google product manager.

COMMENT: Proverbs 23:7 says, "For as he thinketh in his heart, so [is] he." Philippians 2:5 says, "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus." Hebrews 8:10 says, "I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people." 2 Peter 3:1 says, "I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance."

Satan wants your mind and when he can control it without our consent, all the better for him.

Could programmers implant preventive things like following the true God all the way? Encouraging worldliness? Encourage anger? Encourage sensuality? Encouraging stressing out and unable to handle life? Encourage unnecessary competition? Encourage boredom with Bible and nature? Accepting of various sins at least on the toleration level?

Which programs are shaping people's minds? FaceBook, Twitter, Google, and SnapChat. Other unnamed ones too.

And these programmers laugh at the public because so many users think they are not susceptible to their programming, and these programmers say "they are the ones that programmers have an effect upon!!!"

He actually states that Silicon valley is shaping thoughts, actions, and especially feelings. Feeling anxious, depressed? Maybe it is not you. You probably are being programmed to feel that way. Every buzz, every trigger, every alert, just another exposure to the anxiousness of society. Unless the tool is used for business, and even then that is still being susceptible, maybe, just maybe all alerts should be silenced without vibration. You control when to check the phone for messages. Just a thought.

The bigger tech companies have an army that are creating algorithms that are so smart that they know when to reward individual users just at the right time. In other words, they write code that figures out your habits, personalities, triggers, etc. on a personal basis and know when to prompt your next feeling. It can be as simple as holding back a number of the LIKES to something and then burst them all at the precise time for a "pick me up" to even more controlling like causing a depressive moment.

They admit that programmers have figured out how to control the addiction part of the brain.

Dopamine, Inc. had the perfect code to bring down anxiety levels in all users, but when I say perfect, I mean that it follows all of the rules, it is not buggy, it works with all devices, etc. It followed the rules. It was rejected by APPLE'S STORE with the statement, "Any application that encourages less of our apps and devices is not wanted in our collection of products."

May We All Be As Chill As Pope Benedict On His 90th Birthday

HIGHLIGHT: Far removed from Vatican scandals and intrigue, Benedict quietly enjoyed his 90th birthday on Monday, listening to traditional Bavarian music from his native Germany, enjoying the sunny Italian weather, and sipping on a tall glass of beer.

COMMENT: Wait! Isn't the pope supposed to be drinking wine? "And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication" (Revelation 14:8). Oh, my mistake.

That is spiritual wine, a reference to doctrines.

Hey! They are spreading the wine of false doctrines around by kicking back and drinking beer.

"Wine [is] a mocker, strong drink [is] raging: and whosoever is deceived hereby is not wise" (Proverbs 20:1).

So, the supposed representative of God is teaching that strong drink is not raging.

Who shall the world believe? "All the world wondered after the beast" (Revelation 13:3).

Sunday as a Mark of Christian Unity

NO HIGHLIGHT:

COMMENT: The title of "Sunday as a Mark of Christian Unity" says it all. Remember, antichrist is known as "THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS" (Revelation 17:5), so without iota of scripture, non-Catholics even defend the error of Sunday being the Sabbath. 📖 any connection with the Word of God, and he will devise every possible scheme to lengthen the period of his control. The Lord God of heaven gives no sanction to mix and corrupt church associations. The Lord would have His work in the preaching of the gospel so done that there will be no encouragement to evil workers, no toleration of evil associations in Christian assemblies". —Manuscript 7, 1900.

"Assemblies" includes church, in which is the barn. Now when I say "church", I do not mean structures, positions, etc. As the Spirit of Prophecy brings out, also found in David House's article, it is "the truth". Those that assemble because they believe the truth are represented by the wheat, but notice that there is not to be a toleration of evil. Sure, evil has to be dealt with in the manner as 2 Timothy 4:2 tells us, "reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine." It is not just "reprove, rebuke, exhort" nor is it just to have "all longsuffering". It is perfectly balanced.

As I refrain from turning this editorial into a full blown article, I will get to the point. The gathering into the truth begun in 1844 is represented by the harvest. The word "harvest" is not referring to the seventh feast which is the grand harvest, welcoming Jesus the second time, for even Jesus spoke, "The harvest truly [is] great, but the labourers [are] few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest" (Luke 10:2).

What separates the wheat and tares? It is not the angels. It is the message. It is the complete and full Three Angels' Messages. It includes a calling into Christ's righteousness which results in living the complete message including health reform, dress reform, complete repentance, and a complete surrendering to God, dying to self and living for Christ in all aspects of our lives.

So, as you read these articles, realize that they are meant to encourage us to move to a higher standard, weeping over the continued and now boldly worldly trends flooding in that are binding so many to be burned, and just wanting as many as possible to be saved. 📖
